IT was provided by War Office Circular, No. 78, that the Confidential Reports on the Senior Officers of the Military Store Department abroad should be signed by the Commanding Officer of Artillery and the Commanding Officer of the Royal Engineers. As, however, under the Regulations of 19th October, 1857, by the abolition of the Boards of Respective Officers of the Ordnance, the special relations which formerly existed between the three Officers in question have ceased, I am directed by Secretary Major General Peel to request that in future you will yourself sign the Half-Yearly Reports as to the conduct and competence of the Military Store Officer in charge, in accordance with the annexed Form.

I have the honour to be, Sir,
Your obedient Servant,

The Officer commanding ——.

General No. 17.

CIRCULAR, No. 256. (BARRACKS.)

FOREIGN STATIONS.

War Office, 24th May, 1858.

THE Secretary of State for War having had under consideration the claims of Staff Officers at Foreign Stations to be granted, when occupying unfurnished Houses or Quarters provided by Government, the Allowance in lieu of Furniture which is issued, under Article 20 of the War Office Regulations, to Officers of the Staff at Home, has been pleased to decide that the rule at present in force at Home Stations shall be extended to the Colonies.

In future, therefore, all General Officers in Chief Command in the several Colonies, or holding distinct Commands in Canada, Nova Scotia and the Cape of Good Hope, will be granted, when residing in unfurnished Houses or Quarters provided by Government, Furniture Allowance at two-thirds the rate of Lodging Money fixed by the Regulations dated 31*st December*, 1851 (C A.—386).

All other General or Staff Officers, as well as those of the Commissariat, Medical, Store and Royal Engineer Departments and Barrack Masters, will be supplied with the regulated proportion of Barrack Furniture. All classes of General or Staff Officers will continue to receive Fuel and Light as heretofore.

B. HAWES.

To the General or other Officer commanding ——.

Aldershot 1,

CIRCULAR, No. 257.

HOME STATIONS.

War Office, 25th May, 1858.

SOME inconvenience having arisen from the adoption of the form of Engineers' bills prescribed in Circular 102, and it having been determined by Circular 209 that there shall be but one triennial Contractor at each Station, the Secretary of State has decided that so much of the former as directs "that separate bills are to be rendered for each trade, and that all work under each item of the schedule is to be inserted in one charge," shall be cancelled.

The Contractor's quarterly bill for works done at each Station on account of each part of the estimate will in future include the whole of the workmanship, materials and workmen's time supplied by him for all the services in that part, keeping each item of the estimate separate, each trade or schedule distinct, and the different items of the schedule as nearly as possible in numerical order.

The same item of the schedule is only to appear once in the measurements of each item of the estimate.

With a view to facilitate the checking of the bills, and to keep the connection unbroken between the measurement books and the bills, the abstracts from the measurements will be carefully preserved and considered office documents.

In the revised form of bill there are two money columns, in the first of which will be placed the amount of the items of each trade or schedule, and after casting them up and adding or deducting the per centage the result will be carried out into the second column. The amounts in the second column will therefore show the total amount of each trade or schedule chargeable to any particular item of the estimate.

In respect of the sequence of the work under distinct trades or schedules each Commanding Engineer may adopt that which best suits the circumstances of his District, and he will transmit to the Accountant General a set of schedules stitched together in the sequence which he may select. Having adopted such a course, he must adhere to it in all the bills of his district.

CIRCULAR, No. 259. (LIBRARIES.)

War Office, 25th May, 1858.

WITH a view to rendering the Military Libraries more easy of access to Soldiers who may be desirous of availing themselves of them—

It has been decided by the Secretary of State for War to discontinue the present arrangement, by which Soldiers who may be desirous of making use of the Library are required to give in their names to the Paymaster, in advance, before the 1st of each month.

Soldiers will for the future be at liberty to become Subscribers, and to obtain books from Military Libraries, at any period of the month, on signing their names in the Librarian's Book.

The Librarian will at the end of each month send a list of the names of all the Subscribers to the Paymaster, in order that the sum of 1*d.* may be stopped from each Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier named in it.

No account need be taken of the subscriptions of men who leave a Station in the course of the month, as it is to be supposed that they will generally become Subscribers at the Station to which they may be transferred.

The Librarian will, however, be responsible, as at present, for the due return of the books, and for a proper account of damages.

B. HAWES.

CIRCULAR, No. 261.

SIR,

War Office, 31st May, 1858.

1. I AM directed by Secretary Major General Peel to inform you that he has decided, with the concurrence of His Royal Highness the General Commanding in Chief, that the School correspondence which, under Articles 16 and 21 of the Army School Regulations of July, 1857, is conducted by trained Army Schoolmasters direct with the War Office, subject only to the counter signature of the Commanding Officer, shall for the future be conducted by Commanding Officers or Paymasters in their own names.

2. The Commanding Officer, and not the Schoolmaster, will therefore make all future requisitions for School supplies and all future School Reports, which will, however, be placed before him by the Schoolmaster, and signed by the Schoolmaster or Schoolmistress, as at present. The Paymaster will in like manner make the Quarterly Returns of School Receipts, receiving the particulars from the School master.

3. Trained Army Schoolmasters attached to Regiments, Depôts or Depôt Battalions applying for pecuniary allowances, or for transfer, promotion, permission to marry or leave of absence, will address the Officer commanding, by whom such applications will in all cases be forwarded, with his observations, to the Secretary of State.

4. It will also be the duty of the Schoolmaster to address to his Commanding Officer any personal complaint he may have to make, and any representation he may desire respectfully to offer relating to the Schools in his charge, and such complaints or representations will in all cases be forwarded for the consideration of the Secretary of State, with the observations of the Commanding Officer.

5. The same Regulations will apply to Superintending or Garrison Schoolmasters, whose Reports will pass through the Officer commanding the Troops.

6. Articles 16 and 21, as amended, are given [below] on the other side.

I am, Sir, your obedient Servant,

The Officer commanding ——. B. HAWES.

To be substituted for Articles 16 and 21 of Army School Regulations dated July, 1857.

Art. 16. "The Schoolmaster will make a Report in duplicate to the Commanding Officer on the first of each month, on War Office Form No. 367, of the number of adults and children attending the Schools during the previous month, and of their progress, filling up the column of remarks with such observations as he may consider necessary. One copy of this Report is to be forwarded by the Officer commanding, with his signature and any remarks he may consider it desirable to make, to the Secretary of State for War; the other to the Assistant Inspector of the District, for his information."

Art. 21. "The Schoolmaster will immediately after the expiration of each quarter to 31st March, 30th June, 30th September and 31st December, furnish the Regimental Paymaster or Paymaster of the Depôt Battalion, or, in the case of Garrison Schools, the Paymaster by whom the Garrison Staff is paid, as the case may be, with a separate Quarterly Return on War Office Form No. 369, showing the amount which has been received during the period, and credited to the public. On this Form the Schoolmaster will be careful to state the number of Non-commissioned Officers and Men who have attended the School during the quarter, and to avoid including the same individual more than once. This Form is to be forwarded by the Paymaster through the Officer commanding to the Secretary of State for War."

SIR, War Office, 4th June, 1858.

I AM directed by Secretary Major General Peel to transmit the copy of a letter from the General Commanding the Forces in Ireland, calling for certain Returns to be periodically furnished to him in regard to the Numbers, Arms and Ammunition of the Enrolled Force of Pensioners in each District there, and to request that you will cause the same to be regularly forwarded as therein directed.

In order that you may be kept informed of the state of the Service Ammunition, the Barrack Masters in whose charge it is still to remain will afford you access to it on all occasions when you consider that necessary, and it should be seen by you at least once a month.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,

Staff Officer of Pensioners, —— District. B. HAWES.

SIR, Royal Hospital, Dublin, 10*th April*, 1858.

WITH a view to ensure that the Arms and Ammunition of the Pensioner Force in Ireland are constantly kept in a serviceable state, I have the honour to request that each Staff Officer of Pensioners in Ireland may be directed to furnish the Deputy Adjutant General, through the proper channel, for the information of the General Commanding, at the end of each quarter, with a Return according to the annexed Form, showing the number of Enrolled Pensioners in the District, the number of Arms, and the quantity of Service Ammunition in possession, with a Certificate as to the state of the Arms and Ammunition. I beg at the same time to point out that the Staff Officers of Pensioners should be informed that they are responsible that the Service Ammunition supplied for the use of the Force under their orders is available whenever required, and that the fact of the Ammunition being kept for them by the Barrack Masters at certain Stations for security does not relieve them from the responsibility.

The Quarterly Return of Pensioners hitherto furnished by the Staff Officers to the Adjutant General's Department will be no longer required.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your obedient Servant,

CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM, No. 267.

HOME STATIONS.

(Memorandum for Commanding Royal Engineers.)

War Office, 12th June, 1858.

WITH reference to Circular No. 116, dated 29th June, 1857, Commanding Royal Engineers are requested to forward the approximate Estimates for works and repairs chargeable to the Votes for Fortifications and Civil Buildings for the year 1859-60 and succeeding years to the Inspector General of Fortifications, on or before the 1st of September in each previous year.

Commanding Officers of Artillery and Storekeepers at the several Stations will be directed to transmit their requisitions for works and repairs to the Director General of Artillery and Director of Stores respectively by the 1st day of July, in order that it may be determined what services to recommend to the Secretary of State for approval. No new works for these Departments are, therefore, to be inserted in the approximate Estimates without directions from the Inspector General of Fortifications conveying the opinion of the Director General of Artillery and the Director of Stores.

The Commanding Engineer being, however, still responsible for the due maintenance of the works and buildings, will bring forward such restorations and repairs as may seem to be necessary on the occasion of his annual inspection, whether they are brought forward by the Departmental Officers or not.

The sums necessary for carrying on works already under contract will also be included in the approximate Estimate without further orders.

In giving an approximate Estimate of the cost of new works ordered to be brought forward, Commanding Engineers will, on the report side. state fully their opinion of the necessity of the services, even should it happen to differ from that of the Departmental Officers; but it is important that Commanding Engineers should discuss the questions personally with the Departmental Officers before offering any adverse opinions.

Lightning Conductors.

War Office, 25th May, 1858.

The Inspector General of Fortifications having had under his consideration the Regulations of 4th August, 1829, relative to the fixing of Lightning Conductors to Buildings, has satisfied himself that those Regulations require to be reconsidered, owing to the progress of Electrical Science during the last thirty years, and more particularly on account of the researches of Sir William Snow Harris, F.R.S. This gentleman has been so good as to prepare a statement of his views upon this subject, which is appended. Officers who wish further to investigate the question are referred to his published works.

From these it appears to be established,—

1. That metal in a building, whether disposed in the form of a conductor or otherwise, never attracts lightning.

2. That provided the surfaces of metals are not interrupted by bodies possessing a less conducting power, a building entirely of metal will be the safest of all, and that such buildings require no further Lightning Conductors than connections with the earth, over the masonry foundations, on which they are often laid.

3. That with regard to a building of brick or stone, the object must be to establish a sufficient number of lines of Electrical Conductors extending from its most elevated and prominent points to the ground, and further bring the building into a condition similar to that of a metal building, by means of other conductors generally attached to more prominent lines of the building itself, such as the ridges, angles and eaves.

4. There is no advantage, but the contrary, in endeavouring to insulate the Conductors from the building.

5. The best material is copper, either in tube 1½ to 2 inches diameter and one-eighth of an inch thick, or plates 3½ inch wide and one-eighth to three-sixteenths of an inch thick.

6. All metal surfaces, whether lead, copper or iron, in ridges, roofs, gutters or coverings to doors or windows, to be connected by plates of copper with the conducting system. Lead, on account of its low conducting power, cannot be altogether depended upon.

7. One or more solid copper rods to project freely into the air, about 5 feet above the highest points of the building, to which the Main Conductors are applied. The summit of the rod to be pointed; but gold, gilt or platinum tops are unnecessary.

8. The termination of the Conductors below to be led into damp or porous soil, when the building happens to stand upon it; but when the soil is dry, two or three trenches to be cut, radiating from the foot of the Conductor to a depth of 18 inches or 2 feet, and 30 feet in length, and either the Conductor carried along the bottom of the trenches, or old iron chain laid in them, carefully connected with the foot of the Conductor. The trenches to be then filled up to one foot in depth with coal ashes or other carbonaceous substance, and then with earth or gravel.

9. If it be possible, in regulating the surface drainage, to lead a flow of water during the rain, which generally accompanies thunder-storms, over the sites of the trenches, it will be an additional precaution.

10. Tanks are useless, except where the water flows freely into them from the surrounding soil, and even then they are superfluous as appendages to the Conductors.

Commanding Engineers will submit, with their next annual estimates, proposals for revising the existing system of Conductors in accordance with these principles, commencing with Magazines in which more than 100 barrels of powder are habitually kept.

Existing Conductors of iron attached to the buildings, and otherwise fitted in harmony with the above principles, need not be replaced until buildings not provided for are attended to; but water-tight tanks should be replaced by the precautions mentioned in par. 8.

To aid in forming specifications and estimates, some details drawn up by Lieutenant Colonel Chaytor, R.E., are appended of the Lightning Conductors affixed to Weedon Magazines, in 1857, under the personal directions of Sir William Snow Harris.

Inspector General of Fortifications.

Appendix A.

Lightning Conductors, Principles and Instructions relative to their Application to Powder Magazines and other Buildings, by* Sir W. Snow Harris, F.R.S.

1. Thunder and Lightning result from the operation of a peculiar natural agency through an interval of the atmosphere contained between the surface of a certain area of clouds and a corresponding area of the earth's surface directly opposed to the clouds. It is always to be remembered that the earth's surface and the clouds are the terminating planes of the action, and that buildings are only assailed by Lightning because they are points as it were in, or form part of, the earth's surface, in which the whole action below finally vanishes. Hence buildings, under any circumstances, will be always open to strokes of Lightning, and no human power can prevent it, whether having Conductors or not, or whether having metals about them or not, as experience shows.

2. Whenever the peculiar agency (whatever it be), active in this operation of nature, and characterized by the general term Electricity or Electric Fluid, is confined to substances which are found to resist its progress, such, for example, as air, glass, resinous bodies, dry wood, stones, &c., then an explosive form of action is the result, attended by such an evolution of light and heat, and by such an enormous expansive force, that the most compact and massive bodies are rent in pieces and inflammable matter ignited. Nothing appears to stand against it; granite rocks are split open, oak and other trees of enormous size rent in shivers, and masonry of every kind frequently laid in ruins; the lower masts of ships of the line, 3 feet in diameter and 110 feet long, bound with hoops of iron ½ an inch thick and 5 inches wide, the whole weighing 18 tons, have been in many instances torn asunder, and the hoops of iron burst open and scattered on the decks; it is in fact this terrible expansive power which we have to dread in cases of buildings struck by Lightning, rather than the actual heat attendant on the discharge itself.

3. When, however, the electrical agency is confined to bodies, such as the metals, and which are found to oppose but small resistance to its progress, then this violent expansive or disruptive action is either greatly reduced or avoided altogether, the explosive form of action we term Lightning vanishes, and becomes as it were transformed into a sort of continuous current action of a comparatively quiescent kind, which, if the metallic substance it traverses be of certain known dimensions, will not be productive of any damage to the metal; if, however, it be of small capacity, as in the case of a small wire, it may become heated and fused; in this case the electrical agency, as before, is so resisted in its course as to admit of its taking on a greater or less degree of explosive and heating effect, as in the former case. It is to be here observed, that all kinds of matter oppose some resistance to the progress of what is termed the Electrical Discharge; but the resistance through capacious metallic bodies is comparatively so small, as to admit of being neglected under ordinary circumstances. Hence it is that such bodies have been termed Conductors of Electricity, whilst bodies such as air, glass, &c., which are found to oppose very considerable resistance to electrical action, are placed at the opposite extremity of the scale, and termed Non-Conductors or Insulators. The resistance of a metallic copper wire to an ordinary electrical discharge from a battery was found so small, that the shock traversed the wire at the rate of 576,000 miles in a second. The resistance, however, through a metallic line of conduction, small as it be, increases with the length, and diminishes with the area of the section of the Conductor, or as the quantity of metal increases.

4. It follows from these established facts, that if a building were metallic in all its parts, an iron magazine for example, then no damage could possibly arise to it from any stroke of Lightning which has come within the experience of mankind; e. g. a man in armour is safe from damage by Lightning; in fact, from the instant the electrical discharge, in breaking with disruptive and explosive violence through the resisting air (3), seizes upon the mass in any point of it, from that instant the explosive action vanishes (4), and the forces in operation are neutralized upon the terminating planes of action, viz., the surface of the earth (2), and opposed clouds.

5. All this plainly teaches us that, in order to guard a building effectually against damage by Lightning, we must endeavour to bring the general structure as nearly as may be into that passive or non-resisting state it would assume, supposing the whole were a mass of metal.

6. To this end, one or more conducting channels of copper, depending upon the magnitude and extent of the building, should be systematically applied to the walls;

Digitized by Google

these conducting channels should consist either of double copper plates united in series one over the other, as in the method of fixing such Conductors to the masts of Her Majesty's ships, the plates being not less than 3½ inches wide, and of one-sixteenth and one-eighth of an inch in thickness, or the Conductors may with advantage be constructed of stout copper pipe not less than three-sixteenths of an inch thick, and 1¼ to 2 inches in diameter. In either case the Conductors should be securely fixed to the walls of the building, either by braces or copper nails or clamps. They should terminate in solid metal rods above, projecting freely into the air, at a moderate and convenient height above the point to which they are fixed, and below they should terminate in one or two branches leading outward about a foot under the surface of the earth; if possible, they should be connected with a spring of water or other moist ground.

It would be proper in certain dry situations to lead out in several directions under the ground old iron or other metallic chains, so as to expose a large extent of metallic contact in the surface of the earth.

7. All the metals in the roof and other parts of the building of whatever kind should, so far as possible, have metallic communication with these Main Conductors; and in case of any prominent elevated chimney, it would be desirable to lead a pointed conducting tube along it to the metals of the roof, all of which satisfies the conditions above specified (6).

8. REMARK 1.—It is now proved beyond all question, that the electrical discharge never leaves perfect conducting lines of small resistance, in order to pass out upon bad conducting circuits, in which the resistance is very great; that is an established law of nature. Hence a stroke of Lightning upon such conducting lines (7) will be confined to the Conductors as constituting a line of discharge of less resistance than any other line of discharge through the building which can be assigned. The apprehension of "Lateral Discharge," therefore, from the Conductor is quite absurd, and is not countenanced by any fact whatever; if any doubt could possibly exist, it would be now most completely set at rest by the experience of the permanent Conductors applied to the masts of Her Majesty's ships. In very many instances furious discharges of Lightning have fallen on the masts with a crash as if the ship's broadside had been fired, and the solid point aloft has been found melted. In all these cases electrical discharge, robbed by the Conductor of its explosive violence, has traversed the line of action to the sea through the ship, and through the copper bolts driven through the ship's solid timbers, without the least damage to the surrounding masses, whether metallic, as in the case of the massive iron hoops on the lower masts, or not. Persons have been either close by or actually leaning against the Conductors at the time without experiencing any ill consequence.

9. REMARK 2.—It has been also incontestably shown that metallic bodies have not any specific attractive force or affinity for the matter of Lightning. Metals are as little attractive of Lightning as wood or stone. All matter is equally indifferent to Electricity, so far as regards a specific attraction; hence the idea that metals attract or invite Lightning is a popular but very unlearned error, contradicted by the most satisfactory evidence, and the whole course of experience; in short, we find that Lightning falls indiscriminately upon trees, rocks and buildings, whether the buildings have metals about them or not.

In May, 1841, Lightning struck one of the high cylindrical chimneys at the Royal William Victualling Yard, Plymouth, and rent it for 60 feet down. This chimney is built of granite, is 120 feet high, and has not a particle of metal in its construction; but what renders the circumstance more especially applicable to the present case is the fact, that within 100 yards of this chimney stood a clock tower of equal altitude, having a weather-cock and various metallic projections, a dome covered with metal, and a large Conductor along it to the ground; yet was this clock tower unassailed by the great thunder cloud which spread its Lightnings over an area of certainly not less than 2 miles; and further, the point of the chimney at which the damage ceased was just where it passed through a massive metallic roof connected by large Conductors with the ground.

If no other case were on record similar to this, this case alone, according to the best inductive philosophical reasoning, would be sufficient to overturn the whole assumption of the attraction of Conductors for the matter of Lightning, and the vulgar error that such Conductors invite to the buildings the very destruction which they are set up to avoid. In this, as in numerous other recorded cases, the Lightning fell on a structure which, according to the popular error, held no "invitation" by metallic points or attraction, in preference to a structure which did hold out such invitation; a fact totally at variance with the whole assumption.

10. REMARK 3.—A building, as is hence clear, may be struck and damaged by Lightning without having a particle of metal in its construction. If there be metals in it, however, and they happen to be in such situations as will enable them to facilitate the progress of the electrical discharge so far as they go, then the discharge will fall on them in preference to other bodies offering more resistance (3) (4), but not otherwise. If metallic substances be not present, or, if present, they happen to occupy places in which they cannot be of any use in helping on the discharge in the course it wants to go, then the electricity seizes upon other bodies which lie in that course, or which can help it, however small their power of doing so, and in this attempt such bodies are commonly, but not always, shattered in pieces. The great law of the discharge is, progress between the terminating planes of action (2), viz., the clouds and earth, and in such line or lines as upon the whole offer the least mechanical impediment or resistance to this operation, just as water falling over the side of a hill in a rain storm picks out or selects as it were by the force of gravity all the little furrows or channels which lie convenient to its course, and avoids those which do not. If in the case of Lightning you provide, through the instrumentality of efficient Conductors, a free and uninterrupted course for the electrical discharge, then it will follow that course without damage to the general structure; if you do not, then this irresistible agency will find a course for itself through the edifice in some line or lines of least resistance to it, and will shake all imperfect conducting matter in pieces in doing so. Moreover, it is to be especially remarked in this case, that the damage ensues not where the metals are, but where they cease to be continued; the more metal in a building therefore the better, more especially when connected by an uninterrupted circuit with any medium of communication with the earth.

Such is, in fact, the great condition to be satisfied in the application of Lightning Conductors, which is virtually nothing more than the perfecting a line or lines of small resistance in given directions, less than the resistance in any other lines in the building, which can be assigned in any other direction, and in which by a law of nature the electrical agency will move in preference to any others.

The popular objections to Lightning Conductors, on the ground that they invite Lightning to the building, that we do not know the quantity of electricity in the clouds, and that hence they may cause destruction, are now quite untenable, and have only arisen out of a want of knowledge of the nature of electrical action. What should we think of a person objecting to the use of gutters and rain-pipes for a house, on the ground of their attracting or inviting a flow of water upon the building; and since we do not know the amount of rain in the clouds, it is possible that the building may be thereby inundated? yet such is virtually the argument against Lightning Conductors.*

11. It follows from the foregoing principles, that a magazine constructed entirely of iron or other metal would be infinitely more safe in Lightning storms than if built with masonry in the usual way; metallic roofs for magazines, with capacious metallic Conductors to the earth, would be unobjectionable, and a source of security.

Metallic gutters and ridges having continuous metallic connection with the earth are also unobjectionable.

A good method of Conductors for magazines built of masonry would be such as already described (7), regard being had to the position of the building, its extent and most prominent points; also to the nature, state and condition of the soil, whether it be moist or dry, alluvial, calcareous or of hard rock; we must also consider the

* It has been recommended to place Lightning Conductors some feet distant from the buildings, or otherwise insulate them from the walls by glass or resin: all this is clearly opposed to the principles upon which the Conductors are applied; we should not place a rain-pipe ten feet distant from a house if we wish to carry off rain from the roof. A lamentable result of the practice of placing Lightning Conductors distant from a building recently occurred at Compton Lodge, in Jamaica, the residence of J. Senior, Esq. A Lightning Rod of small dimensions, of iron, had been set up within ten feet of the south-east angle of the building, as practised frequently in cases of Gunpowder Magazines, on the assumption that the Rod would attract the Lightning and secure the building. So far from this, the building itself was struck in a heavy thunder-storm, 28th July, 1857. The south-east angle was shattered in pieces; the escape of the family appears to have been miraculous; whilst the Lightning Rod, ten feet distant, remained untouched. If this building had been a deposit of gunpowder, it would certainly have blown up.

To detach or insulate the Conductors is to run away from our own principle, which is, that the Conductor is the channel of communication with the ground, in which the electrical discharge will move in preference to any other course. To detach or insulate the Conductor is to provide for a contingency at once subversive of our principle. Is it possible to conceive that an agency which can rent large rocks and trees, break down perhaps a mile of dense air, and lay the mast of a ship weighing eighteen tons in ruins, is to be arrested in its course by a ring of glass or pitch an inch thick, or less, supposing its course were from any cause determined in that direction?

extent, disposition and peculiar position of the metallic bodies entering into the general structure of the building, whether the roof be flat or pointed, or angular in various parts.

The pointed projecting extremities of the Conductors, one or more as the case may be, will be commonly sufficient; but in buildings having tall chimneys or other elevated prominent points at a distance from the Main Conductor, it will be requisite to guard such chimneys or other parts by a pointed rod led along them to the metals of the roof, or directly connected with the Main Conductors by metallic connections.

12. Pointed terminations of the Conductors in the air are so far important that they tend to break the force of a discharge of Lightning when it falls on them. In fact, before the great shock actually takes place, under the form of a dense explosion, a very large amount of the discharge, which otherwise would be concentrated, runs off as it were through the pointed Conductor, but they have no other influence.*

With respect to these pointed terminations, no great care need be taken about them, except that they should consist of solid copper rod of about three-quarters of an inch in diameter and about a foot in length, and be united by brazing to the conducting tube, elevated at such convenient height above the walls of the building as the nature of the case may suggest.

As a support to the Conductor, when raised above the wall, we may employ a small staff or spar of wood fixed to the masonry.

It has been occasionally the practice to gild the points of Lightning Conductors, or make them of platinum, or otherwise bestow an extraordinary amount of care on perfecting the point, all of which is not only unnecessary, but in some instances detrimental to the action of the Conductor: if, for example, the Conductor be constructed of copper (a metal of high conducting power), then it would be manifestly prejudicial to terminate it in a platinum point, platinum being a metal not having one-half the conducting power of copper.

Much has been said relative to the oxidation of the surface of the metal, but this is of very little moment to the line of conduction, and in the case of copper it is trifling. Under any circumstances the metallic oxide is better than the bad or non-conducting air, which is always in contact with the surface of the metal; beside, we observe that in many cases the wires of the Electrical Telegraph transmit currents of electricity with perfect freedom even when enclosed in gutta percha or other non-conducting matter.

With respect then to the point—it will be sufficient if the terminating solid rod be roughly pointed; almost any termination of the Conductor, even if a ball a foot in diameter, would be virtually a point when opposed to a thousand acres of charged clouds.

13. Copper linings to the doors and window shutters of magazines are not objectionable, if requisite as a precaution against fire, but they are useless as a means of keeping out Lightning; on the other hand, it is not easy to conceive a case in which the explosion of the gunpowder is to be apprehended from the action of Lightning on the doors or windows. Supposing, however, such metallic linings desirable as a precaution against common cases of fire, then the masses of metal should, according to the principles already laid down (7), have metallic communication with the general system of conduction in the building and the Main Conductor.

* A pointed Conductor has been supposed to protect by attraction over a circular area equal to twice the radius of its elevation, which is a pure piece of hypothesis contradicted by experience; e.g. ships have been struck and damaged by Lightning on the foremast, a pointed Conductor being upon the mainmast.

Appendix B.—Supplementary Paper.

Lightning Conductors for Magazines and other Buildings.

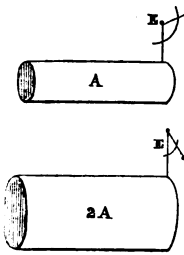
1. Whether a hollow or solid Conductor be the more desirable, the quantity of metal being the same?

This question has been usually considered in relation to the heating effects of an electrical discharge upon comparatively small Conductors, in which the resistance to the discharge is considerable. In this case a given quantity of electricity melts the same quantity of metal, under whatever form it be placed, whether as a solid or a hollow cylinder for example; at least such is to be inferred from the experiments hitherto contrived. See a paper by Mr. Snow Harris, Phil. Trans. for 1827, on Conductors of Electricity, &c. last four paragraphs. In this case it is immaterial whether the Conductor be solid or hollow, provided the mass be the same.

Digitized by Google

Another and very important view, however, is to be taken of this question, as being applicable to a case in which the mass of metal is considerable and the heating effect so small as to admit of being neglected; in this case the resistance of the mass, as a mass, is inconsiderable: such a case as this brings us to the consideration of certain statical laws of Electrified Conductors; since for an evanescent portion of time, during which a shock of Lightning traverses a Lightning Conductor, we may consider the Conductor as being more or less charged with electricity, tending to pass in a given direction, viz. the direction of the Conductor.

Now it is proved that, in a case of this kind, the greater the extent of surface over which the Electricity can expand, the less the intensity or activity in any one point; in fact, the intensity approaches the second power or square of the surface inversely, so that a given quantity of electricity, disposed on twice the extent of surface, has only one-fourth the activity or intensity, whilst twice the quantity on the same surface has four times the activity considered in any one point. Take, for example, two Conductors, A and 2 A, whose surfaces are 1 and 2, or 2 A double the surface of A; let the masses be the same if you wish.



Then if a given quantity of Electricity be disposed on or pervade the smaller surface A, an electroscope E will evince a high intensity, and will stand out violently as it were; whereas the same quantity disposed on 2 A will repose with so much more quietude on the double surface, that the electroscope E will evince but little comparative action. See Phil. Trans. for 1834, page 220, for the laws of this action.

It is hence important to give the charge free room of expansion, by increasing the surface of the Conductor, so as to reduce the mechanical activity of the shock, considered as an evanescent charge, to the least possible. This question is still open to much valuable investigation; a large number of facts might be quoted bearing on it.

Rectangular flat bars may be employed, if found convenient for attaching to the walls of a building.

2. In the case of a Rain Pipe, a b, communicating with the Main Conductor, c n, it would be certainly proper to connect it (the pipe) by a metallic communication, a d, with the ground, on the principles above explained; it admits of a certain quantity of the charge expanding into a general surface of conduction to the earth, as explained in preceding papers.

REMARK.—All those substances, termed imperfect Conductors, such as the masonry of a building, a ship's mast, &c. are nevertheless Conductors to a certain extent, they will always be enabled to transmit a given quantity of Electricity without explosive action. In any case of a ship or building struck by Lightning, doubtless some Electricity always passes off in this way up to the limit of conducting power; one great end of the Conductor is to relieve the wood or masonry of the quantity it cannot discharge without explosion; by thus completing the conducting power of the general mass we use up, as it were, in connection with the Conductors, all the useful conduction of the wood of a ship's mast or the masonry of a building, and so convert into a source of safety what would otherwise be inefficient to the security of the building: all this is consistent with principles, before explained, relative to resistance.

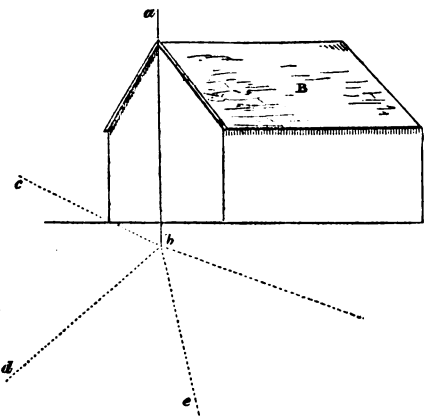
3. Whether Conductors of iron may not be employed for buildings, copper being expensive and liable to be stolen, &c.?

The common Conductors of small iron rod or wire are very objectionable, they commonly rust out at the joints, and have fallen to pieces and have been often knocked in pieces by Lightning. If iron be employed, which it certainly may be, and with advantage, it should be coated with zinc, a modern practice, or what is called "galvanized." Zinc is even a better Conductor than iron, and, being spread over the surface, would not be open to the objection of making a Conductor of two metals of unequal conducting power: in the case of the charge being constrained to pass out of the one into the other, in continuation, as for example, out of a into b, zinc has one-third the conducting power of copper; iron has only about one-fifth the conducting power of copper.

Digitized by Google

Where the Conductors are capacious, as respects the intensity of the shock, and are not heated sensibly, the transmission of the charge, as a question of mere conduction, approaches a ratio of equality; in heavy shocks of Lightning the differences are important. Still there is no doubt but that a good and efficient Conductor might be formed of galvanized iron;* it should be wrought iron, and the best form would be galvanized iron pipe of two inches diameter, firmly screwed together, in joints of extra thickness, as in certain gas pipes; copper tubing of a given thickness, however, is always to be preferred.

4. In the case of a dry or rocky soil it is certainly desirable to complete, so far as possible, the conducting power of the ground about the building, either by leading old iron chain out from the walls in several directions, or by leading a flow of water over it if possible; the distance and direction of such artificial ground conduction must depend on circumstances of situation of the building. The surface of the earth being, as remarked in former paper, one of the terminating planes of the electrical action, the indication is to provide, so far as possible, for the expansion of the final shock passing through the Conductor, without which the Conductor is more or less insulated. Fortunately a thunderstorm is usually attended by heavy rain.



In the case of a building, B, situate on a dry or rocky soil, old iron chains, b c, b d, b e, &c. may be let out from Conductor a b, in various directions, to the extent of about ten or fifteen yards, and from a foot to eighteen inches under the surface of the earth, and it would be further desirable in such cases to lead a flow of rain, so far as possible, over the surface of the ground about or near the Conductor; the termination of the Conductor in a large surface of moist earth would be even preferable to its termination in a spring of water, sunk deep, as in a well, into the ground; the action here is a superficial action of expansion in all directions. We see in the tin leaf coatings of the electrical jar that the charge is in no degree influenced by the thickness of metal.

W. Snow Harris.

* Experience is not wholly in favour of the durability of the galvanized coating of iron.

Appendix C.

Description of Copper Lightning Conductors recently fixed to the new Powder Magazines at Weedon.

Birmingham, 16th April, 1858.

The tubular Conductors on the roofs consist of wrought copper tubing, one inch diameter and one eighth of an inch thick, and are led over the slating and under the copings, on the inside of each gable, from the apex, towards the eave and valley gutters, and connected with the Conductor on the ridge, as shown in figures 7 and 8, plate 3. The Conductors running from the ridge to the valley gutters are screwed to the flat Conductors, which pass over the valley kneelers; see figures 4, 5 and 6, plate 3; and figure 1, plate 2.

The tubular Conductors are fixed to the brickwork of the gables by wrought copper holdfasts, figure 3, plate 3.

The flat Conductors which pass over the valley kneelers are three inches wide and one-eighth of an inch thick, connected with and rivetted to the copper rain water-down pipes on the face of the building; see figure 1, plate 2; thus forming a direct metallic communication with the ground, on the outer slopes of the roofs, by the copper eaves, gutters and descending pipes in the centre of the building; figure 1, plate 2.

Pointed solid copper rods half an inch diameter are fixed on the point of each gable, in connection with the Conductor, on the ridge, and projecting five feet above the highest part o' the building; figure 7, plate 3; and figure 1, plate 2.

The Conductors or rods on the opposite gable of each roof are connected by a copper band four inches wide and one eighth of an inch thick; figures 9 and 10, plate 3; and figure 1, plate 2; securely fixed on the ridge roll by wrought copper nails about two feet apart.

The copper sheathings on the doors of Magazines are connected with the lower end of the rain water pipes by flat copper bands two inches wide and one-eighth of an inch thick, fixed to the stone plinth by copper nails driven into wood plugs about half an inch diameter and two feet apart; figure 1, plate 2.

A copper band two inches wide, one-eighth of an inch thick, and about eighteen inches long, is lapped round the lower end of the rain water pipes at the surface of the ground, and fixed to the stone plinth; this band is rivetted to the upper end of the underground Conductor; figure 1, plate 2; and figure 2, plate 3.

The underground Conductors, three inches wide and one eighth of an inch thick, fixed to the band at the foot of each copper rain water pipe, run four feet from the building, to the end of which are rivetted two copper bands, each eight feet long, two inches wide and one-eighth of an inch thick, as shown in figures 1 and 2, plate 3. These Conductors are about two and a half feet from the surface of the ground at the lowest end, and covered with coal ashes and earth.

Where the tubular Conductors could not be had of sufficient length in one piece, they are connected by an union joint, and strengthened by a small pipe or ferrule, about four inches long, inside the tube, and rivetted to each end in the same manner as the tubes are connected to the ridge; see figures 7 and 8, plate 3.

In the old magazines, where the rain water pipes are lead, the tubular Conductors are continued from the roof to the ground.

MILITARY TRAIN.

REGULATIONS FOR THE ACCOUNT OF STORES.

War Office, 12th June, 1858.

THE Secretary of State for War, having had under consideration the Store Accounts rendered by Officers commanding the Battalions and Depôt of the Military Train, has approved of the following Regulations:—

1. The Quarterly Return of Stores hitherto rendered to the Head Quarters will not in future be required; but in lieu thereof an Annual Return, in the same form, is to be adopted as the only Store Account.

This Return is to be prepared by the Quarter Master of each Battalion, and of the Depôt, certified by the Commanding Officer thereof, and transmitted, with the requisite receipt and delivery vouchers, to the War Office, through the Colonel Commandant of the Corps; in the case of Battalions on Home Service, immediately after the 31st o' March in each year; and from those at Foreign Stations, as soon after that p riod as circumstances will admit.

2. Officers commanding Battalions and the Depôt will apply for the whole of their annual supplies of harness, tools, materials for repairs, &c., on the 1st of October in each year, in conformity with the instructions contained in Article 9, page 161, of the Regulations for the Royal Artillery.

As regards the proportion of materials laid down for repairs, it is intended merely to fix an average of the quantities which will probably be required, but which are liable to variation under certain circumstances.

When, therefore, supplementary demands are made for such Stores in excess of the fixed proportion, before the expiration of the year for which the previous supply had been made, they should be accompanied by explanations as to the reasons for the extraordinary expenditure.

3. Whenever a Battalion or Detachment is relieved at a Station, any remainder of such Stores over and above what can be conveniently carried on the march (which are estimated at three months' supply) should be handed over to the Relieving Officer of the Military Train, or, if there be no such Officer, then to the nearest Military Storekeeper, in accordance with the following instructions, to which the attention of Officers is particularly directed.

In order, however, that the equipment of the Corps may at all times be complete, Stores are on no account to be transferred or given into the charge of any Military Storekeeper, unless it is absolutely necessary, when the circumstances of the case are to be immediately reported.

4. Officers commanding Battalions of the Military Train at Stations at home and abroad, and Officers commanding Detachments, are required to preserve an accurate record of the receipt and expenditure of all Stores in their charge, as laid down in the Military Train General Orders, dated 17th October, 1857. They are also to take care, in rendering their Store Accounts, that the several transactions entered therein are supported by proper vouchers, as without these the entries will be disallowed.

5. Officers commanding Battalions and the Depôt will be held responsible for every article of Field Equipment in their charge: and whenever a change in the command takes place, a certificate from the Relieving Officer (according to the annexed Form A), of his having received over the Stores, must accompany the Annual Store Return to be made up on the 31st of March, and rendered to the War Office through the Colonel Commandant of the Military Train. Any deficiency that may be discovered at the time of the transfer is to be immediately reported to the Colonel Commandant, for the information of the Secretary of State for War, by whose order the Articles wanting will be replaced from the Public Stores at the expense of the Officer chargeable with the deficiency.

6. It is the duty of Officers commanding Troops or Detachments to pay the strictest attention to the care and preservation of every article of equipment. They are to enforce such attention on others by every means in their power; and are to cause individuals immediately to repair or replace at their own expense any appointments or stores which may be lost or damaged by their neglect or misconduct, or otherwise than in the fair course of service.

7. When an Officer is required to certify any Cash or Store Account, or to attach his name in confirmation of the certificate of another person, his signature is considered as a complete certificate of the correctness of the Return or Account, or corroboration of the claim or payment of the sums charged, and also as a guarantee that the services specified were essential, and have been performed under the orders of the said signing Officer; therefore the word "certified" is to be made use of on all such occasions.

8. The Monthly Equipment Return, hitherto sent to the Colonel Commandant by Battalions, will now be transmitted to him every quarter, according to the annexed Form B.

9. As regards any stores which may be returned on inspection as lost or destroyed by neglect, and the value of which may consequently have become chargeable to the Officer accountable for them, the amount accruing to Government on this head is to be paid to the Paymaster by the Commanding Officer of the Battalion or Depôt concerned, and credited by the Paymaster to the Public in his next Quarterly Account.

A report of this circumstance is to be made in duplicate, according to the amended Form C, one copy to accompany the Paymaster's Account, and the other to be rendered with the Annual Store Return of the Battalion.

10. In order that the Battalions of the Corps may not be encumbered with unserviceable Stores, Annual Boards of Survey are to be held under the authority of the General commanding the Station, for the purpose of reporting upon the actual state of all Stores which may be deemed to have become unserviceable, and for which no period of service has been assigned. It will be the duty of these Boards to inquire into the causes of the Stores having become unserviceable, and to be satisfied that every care has been taken to preserve them before they sign the certificate to that effect required by the Report, Form D. Upon the approval of the Report by the General Officer, the usual application is to be made for the return of the unserviceable Stores to the War Department, and demands, if necessary, for Stores to replace them are to be forwarded without delay.

11. With reference to Stores unavoidably lost or destroyed on service, or taken away by deserters, the directions of the "Losses" Warrant, pages 89 to 111, War Office Regulations, are to be observed.

12. Although it is to be distinctly understood that the materials granted to a Battalion are for the purpose of keeping existing Stores in repair, and not for the manufacture of Stores, the exigencies of the service may occasionally require that articles should be manufactured for immediate use by the regimental artificers; and under such circumstances the Forms E and F are to be adopted as vouchers, to accompany the Annual Store Account.

13. The Accounts of the Artificers are to be kept with exactness by the Quarter-Master, and certified by the Commanding Officer. They are to be made up weekly, and submitted for the Commanding Officer's inspection and signature every Monday morning.

The account of Artificers' working time is to be reckoned on the Form G. and that of the work done and the expenditure of materials on the Form H.

Strict attention is to be paid to the Brigade Order of the 10th February, 1858, requiring that Officers commanding Troops should certify to the repairs done in their respective Troops, as shown in the last return.

CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM,

Addressed to Officers commanding Regiments and Depôts at Home and Abroad.

General No. 102, B—33.

Documents, 29.

Horse Guards, S.W., 26th May, 1858.

IN order more effectually to assist the Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital in determining the Pensions of Soldiers discharged as unfit for the service, Commanding Officers will take care, in preparing the discharge documents of Invalids, that the following directions are strictly obeyed :—

1. A copy of the charge, finding and sentence of each Court Martial by which an individual may have been tried is to be inserted on the first page of the Proceedings of the Regimental Board, which can be prolonged, if necessary, by attaching thereto additional paper.

2. In cases where injuries have occurred from accident, either on or off duty, a copy of the finding of the Court of Inquiry, which, by the 82nd Article of War, Commanding Officers are responsible for holding, to investigate the matter on the spot, or as soon after as circumstances may render it practicable, is invariably to accompany the discharge documents.

3. Medical Officers of Regiments will be careful in all cases to describe, not only the disability itself on account of which a man is discharged, but the cause and origin thereof, and whether, in their opinion, it may be attributable to the effects of military duty, climate, constitutional predisposition or accident, and under what circumstances it occurred, and whether on or off duty. If the cause is unknown, or cannot be traced, it should be so stated.

By Command.

Adjutant General.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 707.

STAFF COLLEGE.

Horse Guards, S.W., 3rd June, 1858.

THE following Regulations regarding the Examination of Officers who may be Candidates for admission to the Staff College are published for the information of the Army:—

There will be vacancies at the Staff College for 13 Officers from the Cavalry, Guards and Line, and for 2 Officers from the Royal Artillery and Royal Engineers, in order to make up 15, that being the number of the Junior Division of the College.

The Examinations will take place at the several Stations as follows:—

At Home, at Gibraltar, Malta and the Ionian Islands, Jamaica, the Windward and Leeward Islands, Bermuda, Canada and Nova Scotia, on the 23rd August.

At all other Stations the Examinations will be held at the earliest possible date after the receipt by the General Officer in command of the Examination Papers, which will be despatched from England early in the present month.

At Home the Examination will be conducted by the Council of Military Education in London.

At Foreign Stations the following Regulations will be strictly adhered to:—

A Board of Officers will be appointed by the General Officer in Command, and will consist of three Officers, one of whom to be, when practicable, a Staff Officer, having the rank of Field Officer, and the other two, if possible, not under the rank of Captain. One of these Officers will belong to one of the Scientific Corps, where any such Officers can be obtained.

The Examinations will be conducted by means of the same printed questions as are set for the Examination of Candidates in London, and they are to be answered in the presence of the Board.

The Board will give to each Candidate a number, which he will affix to each of his Examination Papers, instead of his name. He will retain the same number throughout the Examination.

The Board will give to each Candidate a paper of the printed Examination Questions on each subject at the time specified for the Examination in that subject.

The Candidates will write their answers to the questions in the presence of the Board, and their papers, together with the printed Examination Questions, will be collected at the hour appointed, and made up into a packet, which will be sealed before being taken from the Examination Room.

The Board will, immediately on the conclusion of the Examination, forward the papers of the Candidates to the General Officer commanding, for transmission to the Council of Military Education, accompanied by a Certificate that the Candidates obtained no assistance from books, or help of any kind, in their Examination. The Board will, at the same time, forward the names of the Candidates, corresponding with their index numbers in the Examination, in a separate envelope, for transmission to the Council of Military Education.

The following will be the Order of the Examination:—

1st Day.—Mathematics—Obligatory portion,	1st part	3 hours
,, ,,	2nd part ...	3 ,,
2nd Day.—Mathematics—Voluntary portion,	1st part	3 ,,
,, ,,	2nd part ...	3 ,,
3rd Day.—Military History—1st Paper	...	4 ,,
,, 2nd ,, ...	...	2 ,,
4th Day.—Military History—3rd Paper	...	3 ,,
,, 4th ,, ...	...	3 ,,
5th Day.—French	...	3 ,,
Chemistry	...	3 ,,
6th Day.—German	...	3 ,,
Geology	...	3 ,,
7th Day.—Fortification	...	3 ,,
Military Drawing	...	3 ,,

There will be in all cases an interval of not less than one hour between the two periods of Examination on each day.

The Papers will be collected at the appointed hours by a Member of the Board. Any Candidate, however, who may have finished his Examination Paper on any subject before the hour named, may deliver it into the hands of a Member of the Board.

Digitized by Google

Candidates will bring their writing and drawing materials, instruments, &c., and also the tables of logarithms they are in the habit of using. No other books or notes of any description will be allowed to be used.

It is scarcely necessary to observe that no communication whatever will be allowed between the Candidates at the Examination.

The Regulations for the Home Examination, which will be similar in character to those for Foreign Stations, will be published hereafter.

Officers commanding Regiments abroad are to transmit to the General Officer in command a Return of the Officers desirous of competing, together with a Medical Certificate of good health and fitness for the active duties of the Staff. Such Officers will then be ordered to join at Head Quarters for Examination, or at any other places which may be selected for the convenience of those at the more distant Stations.

With reference to paragraph 4 of the Horse Guards' Memorandum of the 17th December, 1857, which directs "that if the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, or the General Officer commanding, cannot recommend the application of any Candidate, the grounds of objection are to be distinctly stated," it is to be observed that, as there will not be time at distant Foreign Stations to refer to the Adjutant General on the subject, such Officer should, in all cases, be permitted to undergo his Examination, on the understanding, however, that the objections urged against his application will still be submitted for the decision of His Royal Highness the General Commanding in Chief.

General Officers commanding at Foreign Stations will place no restrictions upon Officers competing, further than the exigencies of the Service may absolutely require. As only one Officer, however, can be spared from a Battalion at a time for the purpose of studying at the Staff College, those Regiments to which Officers now at the Staff College belong will not be able to compete at the Examination of the present year. But this limitation will not apply to the period during which an Officer from any Corps, after passing through the Staff College, is attached to other Arms of the Service for the purpose of learning the duties of those Arms.

General Officers commanding at Foreign Stations will select the hours for the Examination which are best suited to the climate and circumstances of the country, taking care, however, to conform strictly to the number and distribution of the hours, as detailed in the foregoing Regulations.

On the completion of the Examinations at their Head Quarters, General Officers commanding should transmit the Candidates' papers immediately to the Council of Military Education without waiting for those of Out-stations, and, in like manner, they should forward without delay the papers from each Out-station as soon as received.

Officers serving abroad, who may be successful Candidates, will be allowed the regulated passage money home on joining the Staff College.

The names and Examination numbers of the successful Candidates, and the Examination numbers of the unsuccessful Candidates, will be published immediately after the Reports of the Examiners have been received by the Council of Military Education, with the marks gained in each subject, and the place attained by each Candidate.

By Order of His Royal Highness
The General Commanding in Chief.

G. A. WETHERALL,
Adjutant General.

THE VICTORIA CROSS.

The following Officers and Men have been awarded the above Decoration in addition to those whose Names were published in "The Monthly Army Lists" for March, June, July, October and December, 1857, and January, February and May, 1858.

(Vide Gazette of 4th June, 1858.)

War Office 2nd June, 1858.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to signify her intention to confer the Decoration of "The Victoria Cross" on the under-mentioned Officers and Non-commissioned Officers of Her Majesty's Army, who have been recommended to her Majesty for that Decoration, in accordance with the Rules laid down in Her Majesty's Warrant of 29th January, 1856, on account of Acts of Bravery performed by them in the Crimea during the late War, as recorded against their several names:—

2nd Drs.—Serjeant Henry Ramage.—Date of act of bravery, 26 October, 1854.

For having at the Battle of Balaklava galloped out to the assistance of Private M'Pherson of the same Regiment, on perceiving him surrounded by seven Russians, when by his gallantry he dispersed the enemy and saved his comrade's life.

For having on the same day, when the Heavy Brigade was rallying and the enemy retiring, finding his horse would not leave the ranks, dismounted, and brought in a prisoner from the Russian lines.

Also for having dismounted on the same day, when the Heavy Brigade was covering the retreat of the Light Cavalry, and lifted from his horse Private Gardiner, who was disabled from a severe fracture of the leg by a round shot. Serjeant Ramage then carried him to the rear from under a very heavy cross fire, thereby saving his life, the spot where he must inevitably have fallen having been immediately afterwards covered by the Russian Cavalry.

3 F. (late of 30 F.)—Brevet Major Mark Walker.—Date of act of bravery, 5 November, 1854.

For having at Inkerman distinguished himself in front of his Regiment, by jumping over a wall in the face of two Battalions of Russian Infantry which were marching towards it, for the purpose of encouraging his comrades by his example to advance against such heavy odds, which they did, and succeeded in driving back both Battalions.

57 F.—Colour Serjeant George Gardiner.—Date of acts of bravery, 22 March and 18 June, 1855.

For distinguished coolness and gallantry upon the occasion of a sortie by the enemy, and when he was acting as Orderly Serjeant to the Field Officers of the Trenches,—Left Attack upon Sevastopol,—in having rallied the covering parties which had been driven in by the Russians, thus regaining and keeping possession of the Trenches.

Also for unflinching and devoted courage in the attack on the Redan on 18 June, 1855, in having remained and encouraged others to remain in the holes made by the explosion of shells, from whence, by making parapets of the dead bodies of their comrades, they kept up a continuous fire until their ammunition was exhausted, thus clearing the enemy from the parapet of the Redan. This was done under a fire in which nearly half the Officers and a third of the Rank and File of the party of the Regiment were placed hors de combat.

Late of 6 Drs.—Surgeon James Mouat, C.B., now Deputy Inspector General of Hospitals.—Date of act of bravery, 26 October, 1854.

For having voluntarily proceeded to the assistance of Lieutenant Colonel Morris, C.B., 17 Lanc., who was lying dangerously wounded in an exposed situation after the retreat of the Light Cavalry at the Battle of Balaklava, and having dressed that Officer's wounds in presence of and under a heavy fire from the enemy. Thus by stopping a serious hemorrhage he assisted in saving that Officer's life.

Roy. Eng.—2nd Captain Howard Craufurd Elphinstone.—Date of act of bravery, 18 June, 1855.

For fearless conduct in having, on the night after the unsuccessful attack on the Redan, volunteered to command a party of volunteers who proceeded to search for and bring back the scaling ladders left behind after the repulse; and while successfully performing this task of rescuing trophies from the Russians, Captain Elphinstone conducted a persevering search close to the enemy for wounded men, twenty of whom he rescued and brought back to the trenches.

Roy. Eng.—Colour Serjeant Henry M'Donald.—Date of act of bravery, 19 April, 1855.

For gallant conduct when engaged in effecting a lodgment in the enemy's Rifle Pits in front of the Left Advance of the Right Attack on Sevastopol, and for subsequent valour when, by the Engineer Officers being disabled from wounds, the command devolved upon him, and he determinately persisted in carrying on the Sap, notwithstanding the repeated attacks of the enemy.

Roy. Eng.—Colour Serjeant Peter Leitch.—Date of act of bravery, 18 June, 1855.

For conspicuous gallantry in the assault on the Redan, when, after approaching it with leading ladders, he formed a caponnière across the ditch, as well as a ramp, by fearlessly tearing down gabions from the parapet, and placing and filling them until he was disabled from wounds.

(Vide Gazette of 18th June, 1858.)

The Queen has been graciously pleased to confirm the grant of the Decoration of "The Victoria Cross" to the under-mentioned Officers, Non-commissioned Officers and Men of Her Majesty's and of the East India Company's Armies, which Decoration has been provisionally conferred upon them by Major General Sir James Outram, G.C.B., and by the late Major General Henry Havelock, K.C.B., on account of Acts of Bravery performed by them in India, as recorded against their several names, in virtue of the power delegated to Generals commanding Corps, Divisions or Brigades, by Her Majesty's Warrant of the 29th January, 1856, viz.:—

Roy. Art.—Captain (now Major) FRANCIS CORNWALLIS MAUDE, C.B.

This Officer steadily and cheerily pushed on with his men, and bore down the desperate opposition of the enemy, though with the loss of one-third of his Artillerymen.

Sir James Outram adds, that this attack appeared to him to indicate no reckless or foolhardy daring, but the calm heorism of a true soldier, who fully appreciates the difficulties and dangers of the task he has undertaken; and that, but for Captain Maude's nerve and coolness on this trying occasion, the Army could not have advanced. (Extract from Field Force Orders of the late Major General Havelock, dated 17th October, 1857.)

Beng. Art.—Captain (now Lieutenant Colonel) WILLIAM OLPHERTS.—Date of act of bravery, 25th September, 1857.

For highly distinguished conduct on the 25th of September, 1857, when the troops penetrated into the city of Lucknow, in having charged on horseback, with Her Majesty's 90th Regiment, when, gallantly headed by Colonel Campbell, it captured two guns in the face of a heavy fire of grape, and having afterwards returned, under a severe fire of musketry, to bring up limbers and horses to carry off the captured ordnance, which he accomplished. (Extract from Field Force Orders of the late Major General Havelock, dated 17th October, 1857.)

78 F.—Lieutenant (now Captain) HERBERT TAYLOR MACPHERSON.—Date of act of bravery, 25th September, 1857.

For distinguished conduct at Lucknow, on the 25th September, 1857, in setting an example of heroic gallantry to the men of the Regiment at the period of the action, in which they captured two brass nine-pounders at the point of the bayonet. (Extract from Field Force Orders of the late Major General Havelock, dated 17th October, 1857.)

78 F.—Assistant Surgeon VALENTINE M. M'MASTER.—Date of act of bravery, 25th September, 1857.

For the intrepidity with which he exposed himself to the fire of the enemy, in bringing in and attending to the wounded on the 25th of September at Lucknow. (Extract from Field Force Orders of the late Major General Havelock, dated 17th October, 1857.)

84 F.—Serjeant Major *GEORGE LAMBERT.—Date of acts of bravery, 29th July, 16th August, and 25th September, 1857.

For distinguished conduct, at Onao, on the 29th of July; at Bithoor, on the 16th of August; and at Lucknow, on the 25th of September. (Extract from Field Force Orders of the late Major General Havelock, dated 17th October, 1857.)

1 Mad. Fus.—Serjeant PATRICK MAHONEY.—Date of act of bravery, 21st September, 1857.

For distinguished gallantry (whilst doing duty with the Volunteer Cavalry) in aiding in the capture of the Regimental Colour of the 1st Regiment Native Infantry, at Mungulwar, on the 21st of September, 1857. (Extract from Field Force Orders of the late Major General Havelock, dated 17th October, 1857.)

84 F.—Lance Corporal ABRAHAM BOULGER.—Date of acts of bravery, from 12th July to 25th September, 1857.

For distinguished bravery and forwardness, as a skirmisher, in all the twelve actions fought between 12th July and 25th September, 1857. (Extract from Field Force Orders of the late Major General Havelock, dated 17th October, 1857.)

84 F.—Private JOEL HOLMES.

For distinguished conduct in volunteering to assist in working a gun of Captain Maude's Battery under a heavy fire, from which gun nearly all the Artillerymen had been shot away. (Extract from Field Force Orders of the late Major-General Havelock, dated 17th October, 1857.)

78 F. Private JAMES HOLLOWELL.—Date of act of bravery, 26th September, 1857.

A party, on the 26th of September, 1857, was shut up and besieged in a house in the city of Lucknow by the rebel sepoys. Private James Hollowell, one of the party, behaved throughout the day in the most admirable manner; he directed, encouraged and led the others, exposing himself fearlessly, and by his talent in persuading and cheering, prevailed on nine dispirited men to make a successful defence in a burning house with the enemy firing through four windows. (Extract from Divisional Orders of Major-General Sir James Outram, G.C.B., dated 14th October, 1857.)

5 F.—Private PETER M'MANUS.—Date of act of bravery, 26th September, 1857.

On the same occasion, Private M'Manus kept outside the house until he was himself wounded, and, under cover of a pillar, kept firing on the sepoys and preventing their rushing on the house. He also, in conjunction with Private John Ryan, rushed into the street and took Captain Arnold, of the 1st Madras Fusiliers, out of a dooly, and brought him into the house in spite of a heavy fire, in which Captain Arnold was again wounded. (Extract from Divisional Orders of Major-General Sir James Outram, G.C.B., dated 14th October, 1857.)

1 Mad. Fus.—Private JOHN RYAN.—Date of act of bravery, 26th September, 1857.

In addition to the above act, private Ryan distinguished himself throughout the day by his intrepidity, and especially devoted himself to rescuing the wounded in the neighbourhood from being massacred. He was most anxious to visit every dooly. (Extract from Divisional Orders of Major-General Sir James Outram, G.C.B., dated 14*th October*, 1857.)

1 Mad. Fus.—Private Thomas Duffy.

For his cool intrepidity and daring skill, whereby a 24-pounder gun was saved from falling into the hands of the enemy. (Extract from Divisional Orders of Major-General Sir James Outram, G.C.B., dated 16*th October*, 1857.)

78 F.—Private Henry Ward.—Date of act of bravery, 25th and 26th September, 1857.

"For his gallant and devoted conduct in having on the night of the 25th, and morning of the 26th of September, 1857, remained by the dooly of Lieutenant H. M. Havelock, 10th Foot, Deputy Assistant-Adjutant-General, Field Force, who was severely wounded, and on the morning of the 26th of September escorted that Officer and Private Thomas Pilkington, 78th Highlanders, who was also wounded, and had taken refuge in the same dooly, through a very heavy cross fire of ordnance and musketry. This soldier remained by the side of the dooly, and by his example and exertions kept the dooly bearers from dropping their double load throughout the heavy fire, with the same steadiness as if on parade, thus saving the lives of both, and bringing them in safety to the Baillie Guard." (Extract from Divisional Orders of Major-General Sir James Outram, G.C.B., dated 27*th October*, 1857.)

Her Majesty has also been graciously pleased to signify Her intention to confer the Decoration of "The Victoria Cross" on the undermentioned Officers of Her Majesty's and of the East India Company's Armies, who have been recommended to Her Majesty for that Decoration, in accordance with the Rules and Regulations laid down in Her Majesty's Warrant before referred to, on account of acts of bravery performed by them in India, viz.:—

90 F.—Surgeon Anthony Dickson Home.—Date of act of bravery, 26th September, 1857.

For persevering bravery and admirable conduct in charge of the wounded men left behind the column, when the troops under the late Major-General Havelock, forced their way into the Residency of Lucknow, on the 26th September, 1857. The escort left with the wounded had, by casualties, been reduced to a few stragglers, and being entirely separated from the column, this small party with the wounded were forced into a house, in which they defended themselves till it was set on fire. They then retreated to a shed a few yards from it, and in this place continued to defend themselves for more than twenty-two hours, till relieved. At last, only six men and Mr. Home remained to fire. Of four officers who were with the party, all were badly wounded, and three are since dead. The conduct of the defence during the latter part of the time devolved therefore on Mr. Home, and to his active exertions previously to being forced into the house, and his good conduct throughout, the safety of any of the wounded, and the successful defence, is mainly to be attributed.

90 F.—Assistant-Surgeon WILLIAM BRADSHAW.—Date of act of bravery, 26th September, 1857.

For intrepidity and good conduct when ordered with Surgeon Home, 90th Regiment, to remove the wounded men left behind the column that forced its way into the Residency of Lucknow, on the 26th September, 1857. The dooly bearers had left the doolies, but by great exertions, and notwithstanding the close proximity of the sepoys, Surgeon Home and Assistant-Surgeon Bradshaw got some of the bearers together, and Assistant-Surgeon Bradshaw with about twenty doolies, becoming separated from the rest of the party, succeeded in reaching the Residency in safety by the river bank.

Beng. Vet. Estab.—Captain GEORGE FORREST.—Date of act of bravery, 11th May, 1857.

For gallant conduct in the defence of the Delhi Magazine, on the 11th May, 1857.

Beng. Vet. Estab.—Captain WILLIAM RAYNOR.—Date of act of bravery, 11th May, 1857.

For gallant conduct in the defence of the Magazine at Delhi, on 11th May, 1857.

Com. Dep. (Beng. Estab.)—Deputy Assistant Commissary of Ordnance JOHN BUCKLEY —Date of act of bravery, 11th May, 1857.

For gallant conduct in the defence of the Magazine at Delhi, on the 11th May, 1857.

2 Dr. Gds.—Lieutenant ROBERT BLAIR.—Date of act of bravery, 28th September, 1857.

"A most gallant feat was here performed by Lieutenant Blair, who was ordered to take a party of one serjeant and twelve men and bring in a deserted ammunition waggon. As his party approached, a body of fifty or sixty of the enemy's horse came down upon him from a village, where they had remained unobserved; without a moment's hesitation he formed up his men, and, regardless of the odds, gallantly led them on, dashing through the rebels. He made good his retreat without losing a man, leaving nine of them dead on the field. Of these he killed four himself; but, to my regret, after having run a native officer through the body with his sword, he was severely wounded, the joint of his shoulder being nearly severed." (Despatch from Major-General James Hope Grant, K.C.B., dated 10th January, 1858.)

9 Lanc.—Lieutenant ALFRED STOWELL JONES (now Captain 18 Hussars). —Date of act of bravery, 8th June, 1857.

"The Cavalry charged the rebels and rode through them. Lieutenant Jones, of the 9th Lancers, with his squadron, captured one of their guns, killing the drivers, and, with Lieutenant-Colonel Yule's assistance, turned it upon a village occupied by the rebels, who were quickly dislodged. This was a well-conceived act, gallantly executed." (Despatch from Major-General James Hope Grant, K.C.B., dated 10*th January*, 1858.)

2 Punjab Cav.—Captain (now Major) DIGHTON MACNAGHTEN PROBYN.

"Has been distinguished for gallantry and daring throughout this campaign. At the battle of Agra, when his squadron charged the rebel infantry, he was some time separated from his men and surrounded by five or six sepoys. He defended himself from the various cuts made at him, and before his own men had joined him had cut down two of his assailants. At another time, in single combat with a sepoy, he was wounded in the wrist by the bayonet, and his horse also was slightly wounded; but, though the sepoy fought desperately, he cut him down. The same day he singled out a standard-bearer, and, in presence of a number of the enemy, killed him and captured the standard. These are only a few of the gallant deeds of this brave young officer." (Despatch from Major-General James Hope Grant, K.C.B., dated 10*th January*, 1858.)

1 Punjab Cav.—Lieutenant JOHN WATSON.—Date of act of bravery, 14th November, 1857.

"Lieutenant Watson, on the 14th November, with his own squadron, and that under Captain, then Lieutenant, Probyn, came upon a body of the rebel cavalry. The Ressaldar in command of them,—a fine specimen of the Hindustani Mussulman,—and backed up by some half dozen equally brave men, rode out to the front. Lieutenant Watson singled out this fine-looking fellow, and attacked him. The Ressaldar presented his pistol at Lieutenant Watson's breast at a yard's distance, and fired; but most providentially without effect; the ball must, by accident, have previously fallen out. Lieutenant Watson ran the man through with his sword, and dismounted him; but the native officer, nothing daunted, drew his tulwar, and with his Sowars renewed his attack upon Lieutenant Watson, who bravely defended himself until his own men joined in the melée, and utterly routed the party. In this rencontre, Lieutenant Watson received a blow on the head from a tulwar, another on the left arm, which severed his chain gauntlet glove, a tulwar cut on his right arm, which fortunately only divided the sleeve of the jacket, but disabled the arm for some time; a bullet also passed through his coat, and he received a blow on his leg, which lamed him for some days afterwards." (Despatch from Major-General James Hope Grant, K.C.B., dated 10*th January*, 1858.)

MEMORANDUM.

Lieutenants Duncan Charles Home and Philip Salkeld, Bengal Engineers, upon whom "The Victoria Cross" was provisionally conferred by Major-General Sir Archdale Wilson, Bart., K.C.B., for their conspicuous bravery in the performance of the desperate duty of blowing in the Cashmere Gate of the Fortress of Delhi, in broad daylight, under a heavy fire of musketry, on the morning of the 14th September, 1857, preparatory to the assault, would have been recommended to Her Majesty for confirmation in that distinction had they survived.

The Queen has been pleased to direct that the following Regulations respecting Foreign Orders and Medals shall be substituted for those now in force:

Regulations respecting Foreign Orders.

1. No Subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Such permission shall not be granted to any Subject of Her Majesty, unless the Foreign Order shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service before the Enemy, either at Sea or in the Field; or unless he shall have been actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's dominions, in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign by whom the Order is conferred.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British Subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the Notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the Ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.

If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the Notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such Notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Services before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department; previously to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.

A similar reference shall also be made to the Commander-in-Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty, if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order, and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a Notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission, may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's licence and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realms.

9. When a British Subject has received the Royal permission to accept a Foreign Order, he will at any future time be allowed to accept the Decoration of a higher Class of the same Order, to which he may have become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign Service, or in the Service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British Subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV. and King William IV., on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and of Hanover were united.

Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British Subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

Regulations respecting Foreign Medals.

1. Application for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a Foreign Sovereign on British subjects in the Army or in the Navy for military or for naval services, should be addressed, as the case may be, to the Commander-in-Chief, the Master-General of the Ordnance, or the Lords of the Admiralty, who, if they see fit, may submit the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for Her Majesty's sanction; upon obtaining which, they may grant such permission without any other formality.

2. Permission to wear a Foreign Medal cannot be granted to a British Subject, unless such Medal is bestowed for military or naval services performed by the command or with the sanction of Her Majesty. But no permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such Medal is not to be worn.

Foreign Office, May 10, 1855.

WARRANTS, CIRCULARS, &c

General No. 1,
207.

CIRCULAR, No. 272.

(REVISED FORMS OF ACCOUNT CURRENT AND REQUISITIONS FOR IMPRESTS TO BE RENDERED BY MILITARY STOREKEEPERS AND BARRACK MASTERS AT HOME.)

SIR, War Office, 21st June, 1858.

IN forwarding to you a revised Form of Quarterly Account Current, I am directed by Secretary Major General Peel to request you will bring the same into use in preparing your account for the current quarter; and as it is essential that the expenditure and receipts in your accounts should be balanced as nearly as possible, I am further instructed to desire that you will take care, whenever the balance due to the public shall exceed the proportion of one week's average expenditure, that an explanatory statement of the cause thereof shall accompany the account.

The necessity for such an explanation will, however, in most cases be obviated by a careful preparation of your requisition for the Monthly Imprest, which should be forwarded in time to reach this Office on or before the 23rd of each month, and in which no more should be demanded than the sum which will be requisite to carry on the ordinary duties of the Station, until the expiration of the month to which such requisition relates.

You will therefore take care to state, when preparing the requisition, the correct amount of the balance in your hands available at the time towards the expenditure of the month to which it applies, after deducting the amount actually expended according to your account books, and the amount likely to be further expended before the conclusion of the month in which the requisition is prepared, as required by the printed form.

If any unforeseen expenditure should arise, a Supplementary Imprest may be applied for.

At every Military Store or Barrack Station at which there is a second officer or clerk, he is to join in the requisitions for Imprests, supporting the same by a joint certificate with the senior officer, as prescribed in an amended form of requisition, of which a copy is enclosed.

With regard to Barrack Stations, such amended requisition will comprise the information at present contained in the Cash States, and render the preparation of the latter documents unnecessary. Barrack Masters will therefore, after the ensuing month, cease to furnish Barrack Forms 39 as separate returns; but they are desired to exercise the greatest care in requiring punctual payment of all receivable amounts, and to include such receipts in the monthly requisitions, transmitting the proper quarterly vouchers for the same with their Accounts Current at the expiration of the quarter.

I am your obedient Servant,
B. HAWES.

General No. 63.

CIRCULAR, No. 273 (SCHOOLS).

SIR, War Office, 23rd June, 1858.

THE Secretary of State for War having decided to alter the terms of Art. 38 of the Army School Regulations of July, 1857, so as to separate that part which relates to religious instruction from that part which relates to the general attendance, and at the same time remove any doubt which may exist as to the perfect equality and freedom of members of all religious denominations in respect to the former, I am directed by Major General Peel to forward to you the enclosed Regulation, which is to be substituted for the Article in question.

I am to take this opportunity of adding, that Major General Peel is of opinion that it will tend to promote the efficiency of Army Schools, if in every Regiment and Garrison where there is no local Assistant Inspector, it be made the duty of some one Officer, besides the Orderly Officer—if possible one who will voluntarily undertake it—to visit them periodically during the hours of attendance, and to call the attention of the Commanding Officer to all circumstances which he may observe, or which may be pointed out to him by the Schoolmaster as susceptible of improvement. If the matter is one which cannot be remedied by the influence and authority of the Commanding Officer, the monthly School Reports furnish him with the opportunity of calling the attention of the Secretary of State to it.

I have the honour to be, Sir, your obedient Servant,

B. HAWES.

[To be substituted for Art. 38 of the Army School Regulations, dated July, 1857.]

38. RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION.

1. THE Schoolmaster will open the School at 9 a.m. with the Lord's Prayer, with or without the addition of one or more Collects from the Book of Common Prayer, or with one of the Forms of Prayer which may be expressly authorized for this purpose.

2. He will proceed to give a collective Bible Lesson, or to read and explain a short passage of Holy Scripture taken from the authorized or the Douay version.

3. The attendance of adults at this Instruction will be entirely voluntary.

4. The parents of children who are not of the same religious persuasion as the Schoolmaster will be at liberty to send such children to School at the hour for commencing general instruction, viz., 9.30 a.m., and not at the hour for opening School, so that there may be no impediment to the advantage of religious instruction being extended to such adults and children as are desirous of receiving it.

5. The same principle is to apply to Infant Schools.

6. On two days in each week, of which Saturday shall not be one, there will be an hour set apart for specific religious instruction under clerical direction, in which the participation of the Schoolmaster is to be voluntary. At these hours the officiating Chaplains to the Forces, the Roman Catholic Clergy and the Ministers of any denomination belonging to places of worship to which the Troops are marched on Sunday, will be at liberty to attend, and to form separate classes of adults or children of their own respective persuasions, on a general notice given previously to the Commanding Officer, who will direct in what places they shall assemble their respective classes.

7. No secular instruction, whether literary or industrial, is to be carried on in the same room during its employment for the purpose of religious instruction.

Attendance.

8. The School will be opened for general instruction at 9.30 a.m., when all adults who attend in the morning, and the whole of the children, will be expected to take their places. There will be afternoon school for the children at least four days in the week, provided it can be so arranged without interruption to the adults; but this is not to interfere with the attendance of girls at the Industrial School.

9. The Commanding Officer will arrange the hours of afternoon or evening school for adults in such way as will most encourage their attendance, and will at the same time permit the use of the Schoolroom by the Instructor of Musketry, if necessary, without interference with its primary purposes.

NOTE.—The brackets in Art. 6 of the Army School Regulations, July, 1857, erroneously includes Cloak, Sword and Waist-belt among articles of clothing supplied biennially. It is to be understood that these articles are expected to last the usual time.

CIRCULAR, No. 275.

War Office, 25th June, 1858.

THE Secretary of State for War has decided that all persons appointed subsequently to this date to be Armorers in the Military Store Department shall be designated "Armorers" and "Assistant Armorers" respectively, and shall receive the following rates of pay and allowances, viz.:—

Digitized by Google

Armorers, pay at the rate of 6*s.*, and Assistant Armorers at the rate of 4*s.* 6*d.* per diem for six days in the week at Home and Foreign Stations.

At Home Stations, when accommodated in Quarters, Armorers are to pay rent for them at the rate of 2*s.* 6*d.* per week, and Assistant Armorers at 2*s.*

At Foreign Stations, Quarters, or, in lieu thereof, lodging money at the rate prescribed in Section 1, Class 12, of the Regulations of 31st December, 1851 (c. A.—386), will be allowed to Armorers, and at that laid down in Section 2, Class 12, to Assistant Armorers. Armorers and Assistant Armorers will receive Fuel and Light for one Room and a Ration of Provisions, on account of which the regulated stoppage of 3½*d.* per diem will be deducted.

This Order does not apply to persons already in the Department whose pay and allowances exceed the rates above specified; such persons will continue in the receipt of their present pay and allowances.

CIRCULAR, No. 276.

War Office, 26th June, 1858.

THE Secretary of State for War directs that, in future, all Carriages and Waggons of Troops of Royal Horse Artillery and Field Batteries shall be painted with one coat of paint and lettered annually; that the service be performed at the expiration of the summer season, and that, as a general rule, the work be executed by the Wheelers of the Troop or Battery.

When, however, it may be found absolutely necessary to employ other Soldiers or workmen, in addition to the artificers of the Troop or Battery (which would involve a claim for working pay), a special representation of the circumstances which render such employment indispensable is to be made to the Military Storekeeper at the Station, if at home, who will transmit it to the Under Secretary of State for War, War Office, Pall Mall, and at Foreign Stations to the General Officer Commanding the Troops, that the proper authority may be obtained previously to the expense being incurred.

Demands for the necessary materials, &c., such as paint, putty and brushes, in the proportions annexed, are to be made on the Military Storekeeper, if the Battery be abroad; and in order that he may be enabled to make a proper provision for this service, the Commanding Officer will furnish him with a Return of the Carriages, &c. to be painted, as directed by the Orders of 14th November, 1825, and the 9th November, 1829 (A.—1673).

If the Battery be at a Home Station, the Commanding Officer will send his demand direct to the Deputy Adjutant General of Artillery for transmission to the War Office.

Proportions of Paint, &c. to be demanded annually for Gun Carriages and Waggons of Troops of Royal Horse Artillery and Field Batteries:—

CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM, No. 281.

War Office, 30th June, 1858.

THE LORDS COMMISSIONERS OF HER MAJESTY'S TREASURY having called the attention of the Secretary of State for War to the great expenditure incurred in the printing of Special Papers and Reports for departmental use, or for presentation to Parliament, Secretary Major-General Peel, with a view to carry into effect the instructions of the Lords of the Treasury, as shown in the annexed extracts from Treasury Minutes, dated 10th and 31st May, directs as follows:—

1. No Special Report is to be printed without the sanction of the Under Secretary of State.
2. Appendices to Reports are only to be printed when they are indispensable for a proper understanding of the Report; the reasons which render it necessary to print them are to be fully stated for the consideration of the Under Secretary of State.
3. The gratuitous distribution of Reports is to be as limited as possible, and in no case are more than 50 copies to be so distributed without the sanction of the Treasury specially obtained.
4. With regard to papers for presentation to Parliament, it is preferable, when practicable, to present them in manuscript, leaving the printing to be ordered by the House to which the paper is submitted.

B. HAWES.

Extracts from Treasury Minutes of 10th and 31st May, 1858.

"The Select Committee of 1855, in a passage quoted by the Printing Committee of 1857, observed that 'the cost is principally occasioned by the bulk of Appendices. It is not in the magnitude of Reports, which are often comparatively short, but in attaching to them an enormous mass of useless detail. This mass is seldom looked at or even referred to, and hence they become mere waste paper. In many cases a few copies would be all that might be required to be given to Members, in case they should apply for them, or to be sold to the public in case they should be wanted.' This is a point in reference to which my Lords must chiefly depend upon the co-operation of the persons charged with conducting Commissions of Inquiry, and of the Public Departments under whose directions they are immediately acting. Papers appended to Reports ought to be strictly confined to those which are indispensable for the elucidation of the subject. In some cases it may be sufficient if the Report only is printed, and the Evidence and Appendices are deposited in some accessible place; but, under all circumstances, a careful supervision should be exercised by the Public Department concerned, and authority should not be given for the printing of any Paper until the necessity of its forming part of the collection has been fully established.

"The next point is, that the printing should be executed in the most economical manner consistent with the objects in view. The Comptroller of the Stationery Office, under whose directions the Government printers act, is vested with full powers for this purpose, and it will be his duty to see that the practice which has recently been introduced of printing Evidence and Appendices in smaller type, and in double columns, is adopted when the circumstances require it.

"The copies ordered to be printed should be limited to the number which may appear, on a careful calculation, to be absolutely necessary. In order to secure proper attention to this important point, my Lords request that when the time arrives for printing the Report of a Commission of Inquiry, a letter may be addressed to the Treasury stating the number of copies required otherwise than for Parliament, or for sale as Parliamentary Papers; and after the Comptroller of the Stationery Office has ascertained what additional copies are wanted for these last-mentioned purposes, the whole number shown to be necessary will be printed and delivered."

"The first point to be attended to is, that the papers appended to the several Reports should be confined within the narrowest practicable limits. A large portion of the expenditure is caused by the increase in the quantity of matter to be printed arising from the greater bulk of the Appendices. No paper ought to be included in the 'copy' sent to the Stationery Office to be printed until the attention of the Chief of the Department has been called to it, and his written sanction has been obtained to its being so included. For instance, the Officers acting under the superintendence of the Home Office should obtain the sanction of the Secretary of State, certified in the usual manner under the hand of an Under Secretary, and the same with the Officers acting under the Treasury and other Superintending Departments.

"The last and most important point regards the numbers of copies of reports and papers required by Public Departments for gratuitous distribution. These, my Lords are satisfied, have, in numerous instances, been carried to excess; and, besides entailing a heavy and rapidly-increasing expense upon the public, the practice is at variance with sound principle. In the great majority of cases, from twenty-five to fifty copies of a report or paper would be quite enough for gratuitous distribution; and, except in rare instances, and under very peculiar circumstances, the latter limit ought not to be exceeded. Such reports and papers as are gratuitously distributed are not always given to those who are best entitled to receive them, or best able to make good use of them, and they are consequently but little read or cared for. Inasmuch, however, as they are all sold as Parliamentary Papers at such low prices as to be within the reach of all classes of individuals, the objects to be gained by their circulation would be more likely to be realized by their being sold than by their being given away; and to facilitate their sale, and make them known to the public, my Lords will not object to the Comptroller of the Stationery Office being authorized to advertise those of most importance, according to the practice which has been followed with much success for many years in reference to the Ordnance Maps and Record Publications, as described in the Treasury Minutes, copies or extracts of which are annexed.

"My Lords cannot, therefore, consent that more than fifty copies of any departmental report or paper should in future be printed for gratuitous distribution, without an application, stating in detail the reasons why an increased number of copies are required, having been previously made to this Board, and sanctioned by it; and the Comptroller of the Stationery Office is directed not to print more than fifty copies of any such report or paper for gratuitous distribution, unless he is specially instructed by my Lords to print a greater number."

Clergy,
General No. 141.

CIRCULAR, No. 283.

Allowances to Officiating Clergymen in the United Kingdom.

War Office, 30th June, 1858.

From the 1st July, 1858, all Officiating Clergymen will be paid according to the average number of Officers and Soldiers requiring their spiritual superintendence during the period for which they are to be paid. Such payment shall be made in accordance with the annexed Scale.

From 25 to 100 men, at the rate of 10*s.* per annum for each man.
From 101 to 300 men, at the rate of 3*s.* per annum for each man.
From 301 upwards, at the rate of 2*s.* per annum for each man.

As these rates of payment have been settled with a view to the remuneration of services actually performed, Clergymen must be prepared, when required to do so by the Officer commanding the Troops, to officiate in Barracks. If, however, the Church or Chapel be within a reasonable distance of the Men's Quarters, the Troops should attend Divine Service with the ordinary congregation, should there be the means of providing them with proper accommodation.

The general rule is to be held binding, that unless there be present at the Station 25 men of all ranks, including Officers, belonging to the Church of England, the Clergyman of that Church there officiating shall not be entitled to any remuneration. The claims thereto of the Presbyterian and the Roman Catholic Clergyman shall, in like manner, be contingent on the presence at the Station of 25 Officers and men belonging to their respective persuasions. The average is to be taken upon the numbers composing the Force at any Station on each Sunday morning during the period the clerical superintendence continues, which numbers are to be furnished by the Commanding Officer, upon the requisition of the Clergyman of each denomination.

When the requisite accommodation in the Church or Chapel cannot be obtained, and a separate service is consequently necessarily performed at any Station, upon the certificate of the Commanding Officer to this effect, and provided the numbers attending amount to 50, the following additional allowances will be granted to the Clergymen of each denomination respectively:—

For each separate service, 10*s.*

Digitized by Google

Upon the Troops being withdrawn or falling below the prescribed minimum before the end of a quarter, and upon the Clergyman at such Station certifying that he had been obliged to engage clerical assistance to the termination of the quarter solely on account of the Troops, an allowance of 10*s.* a week will be granted to the end of such quarter.

The claims of all Officiating Clergymen shall, as heretofore, be made at half-yearly periods, ending 30th September and 31st March; and Commanding Officers are therefore required, immediately after the expiration of those periods, to furnish the Clergymen with printed certificates, to be obtained from this Department, instructing them to forward their claims direct to the War Department for consideration. When the certificates have been approved, an authority for the payment of the amount due will be issued to the Regimental or other Paymaster at the Station.

The above Regulations are not intended to interfere with the fixed Stipends now allowed, or which hereafter may be allowed, to Clergymen specially appointed to and officiating in Garrisons.

I AM directed by Secretary Major General Peel to acquaint you, that it has been decided to relieve you of the necessaries which were in your possession previous to the disembodiment of the Regiment under your command, and which were not public property, if the purchase of them be satisfactorily accounted for, and it be shown that the articles are of proper quality and the prices reasonable. I am therefore to request that you will furnish me with a return, showing the number of necessaries now remaining in the Stores of the Regiment, and the prices that have been paid for each, or the amount now due to the tradesmen for the same. The necessaries now in your charge may be issued to the new Volunteers upon their first training.

After each training a statement is to be transmitted to the War Office, showing the amount of such issues, and the quantity then remaining in Store.

I am also to remind you, that all the arms, equipment, clothing and necessaries, which are in your possession, must be kept in the Regimental Stores, and that they should be so arranged as to admit of the readiest issue to the men, in order that the Regiment may be available for service at the shortest notice.

As the Quarterly Returns are intended to present at one view a clear statement of the means of equipment in possession of each Regiment, you will in future make therein an entry of the number of articles of necessaries in Store. The most conve-

The Queen has been pleased to direct that the following Regulations respecting Foreign Orders and Medals shall be substituted for those now in force:

Regulations respecting Foreign Orders.

1. No Subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Such permission shall not be granted to any Subject of Her Majesty, unless the Foreign Order shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service before the Enemy, either at Sea or in the Field; or unless he shall have been actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's dominions, in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign by whom the Order is conferred.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British Subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the Notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the Ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.
If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the Notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such Notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Services before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, previously to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.
A similar reference shall also be made to the Commander-in-Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty, if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order, and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.
When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a Notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission, may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's licence and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realms.

9. When a British Subject has received the Royal permission to accept a Foreign Order, he will at any future time be allowed to accept the Decoration of a higher Class of the same Order, to which he may have become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign Service, or in the Service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British Subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV. and King William IV., on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and of Hanover were united.
Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British Subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

Regulations respecting Foreign Medals.

1. Application for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a Foreign Sovereign on British subjects in the Army or in the Navy for military or for naval services, should be addressed, as the case may be, to the Commander-in-Chief, the Master-General of the Ordnance, or the Lords of the Admiralty, who, if they see fit, may submit the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for Her Majesty's sanction; upon obtaining which, they may grant such permission without any other formality.

2. Permission to wear a Foreign Medal cannot be granted to a British Subject, unless such Medal is bestowed for military or naval services performed by the command or with the sanction of Her Majesty. But no permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such Medal is not to be worn.

THE Secretary of State for War, having had under consideration various complaints of the inconvenience suffered by Officers of the General and Garrison Staff, in consequence of the prohibition to their employment of Soldiers as servants contained in Circular No. 193, has, with the concurrence of His Royal Highness the General Commanding in Chief, been pleased to withdraw such prohibition, and to allow in future to such Officers Soldier Servants under the regulations and restrictions in force previously to the date of that Circular.

He has also been pleased to direct that the pecuniary allowance in lieu of servants may be continued to Officers of the Royal Engineers whenever applicable, at the rate of 1s. 6d. a day, both at home and abroad.

CIRCULAR, No. 293.

War Office, 26th July, 1858.

IT being found that the provisions of Article 9 of the Royal Warrant of 1st July, 1848, which prescribe a daily settlement with Soldiers for their pay, are not always enforced in the case of Recruits between the period of their enlistment and final approval, Officers engaged in the Recruiting Service are reminded that a Recruit, after receiving enlisting money, is, under the terms of the Mutiny Act, a Soldier in Her Majesty's Service, and as such has a full claim to a daily settlement of his pay under the Regulation referred to.

No deviation from the rule is therefore sanctioned, nor can any charges be admitted in the Public Accounts which are not in strict conformity thereto.

General No. 8.

SIR, War Office, 28th July, 1858.

THE Secretary of State for War having had under consideration the rate of allowance granted to Horse Dealers in aid of their expenses in conveying remounts to the Head Quarters of the Regiment for which they are purchased, has decided, with the concurrence of His Royal Highness the General Commanding in Chief, that the following shall in future be the rate of travelling allowance to the Dealer, viz., twopence per horse for every mile necessarily travelled from the place where the horses shall be inspected by the Officer to the Head Quarters of the Regiment.

It is to be understood that the existing rule of purchasing remounts in that portion of the United Kingdom in which the Regiment is stationed is to be abided by as much as possible; but when in any instance it can be shown that a departure from that rule will be more for the public advantage, a representation of the circumstances is to be addressed to His Royal Highness the General Commanding in Chief, in order that, if he concur therein, he may forward it for the approval of the Secretary of State, whose authority, if granted, will be conveyed to the Officer commanding the Regiment.

When horses are purchased in Ireland for a Regiment in Great Britain, or vice versâ, under such special authority, the actual and necessary expense of transit across the sea by the nearest and most practicable passage will be admitted in the public accounts in addition to the mileage from the place of inspection; but it is to be distinctly understood that the Dealer will be responsible for the risk and expenses incurred, should the horses be injured or prove unfit for service on arrival at the Regiment.

In every case in which the special authority of the Secretary of State above referred to shall be granted, a certified copy thereof is to be annexed to the Paymaster's accounts as one of the vouchers for the charges therein.

I have the honour to be, Sir,
Your obedient Servant,

B. HAWES.

To the Officers commanding Cavalry Regiments and Battalions of the Military Train.

43. CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM, No. 296.

To commanding Royal Engineers and Barrack Masters at Home Stations.

War Office, 3rd August, 1858.

THE accompanying Tithe Commutation Tables are transmitted with reference to the Certificate respecting Tithes required at the foot of the Form No. 19 attached to the Circular, No. 232, dated 13th March, 1858. By an inspection of the Tithe Commutation Award in the Parish Church the acreage of land in possession of the War Department liable to tithe and the amount of rent-charge may be ascertained. The amount actually payable fluctuates according to the average price of corn for the seven preceding years, and the Tables now forwarded are annually published to show the amount for the year. When necessary the Tithe Tables will be included in the annual demands for Stationery.

Commanding Royal Engineers and Barrack Masters are also directed to specify distinctly in all future agreements on letting War Department property that the tithes are to be paid by the tenant.

War Office, 4th August, 1858.

SECRETARY Major General Peel being of opinion that the commuted allowances for Stationery established by the War Office Circular of 25th May, 1855, are sufficient for all the purposes of a Regiment, and that all correspondence on the subject of Musketry Training should be conducted by the Commanding Officer, has decided that a separate supply of Stationery for the use of the Musketry Instructor shall be discontinued.

The necessary printed Forms will be supplied by this Office as heretofore.

Regulations affecting Sick Pay to Civil Artificers, Foremen Labourers, &c., to be substituted for those contained in the "Ordnance Regulations, Home, 1855," Articles 149 to 156, which are hereby cancelled.

No Pay will be allowed to any Master Artificer, Foreman, Artificer, Labourer or other person rated as such who does not attend his call at the stated period and perform the work allotted to him, unless he is absent with the special permission of the Secretary of State, or in consequence of sickness, when the following rules are to be observed:—

1. Within three days of the expiration of each month, two separate Returns on the inclosed Forms are to be rendered; that marked A. to embrace all men who shall have been absent during such month in consequence of injuries received in the execution of their duty, or sickness clearly attributable to the nature of the work performed, and to be certified accordingly by the Head of the Department and the Medical Officer; and that marked B. to contain all men of three years' service and upwards, and of good character, who shall have been so absent, and whose illness shall not have been either caused as above or by their own misconduct. Master Artificers and Foremen will be inserted in both these Returns as a separate class, and will be eligible to receive the Full Pay of their rank. With respect to Artificers and Labourers, those included in Form A. will be eligible to receive their Full Pay, and those in Form B. will be eligible to receive a proportion of their Full Pay, not exceeding three-fourths.

2. No Pay during absence will be allowed to men who have served less than three years.

3. No man is to be continued on the Sick Pay List for a longer period than one month at a time, or to be allowed Full Pay, or any portion thereof, for a longer period than two months in any one year unless under peculiar circumstances to be specially reported for the decision of the Secretary of State.

4. Should any case of particular distress arise, wherein the sick man would be seriously inconvenienced by waiting until the end of the month, a separate Return on the appropriate Form is to be forwarded with a special Report; but in no instance is an advance of Sick Pay to be made without the specific sanction of the Secretary of State.

CIRCULAR, No. 299 (BARRACKS).
HOME STATIONS.

War Office, 6th August, 1858.

SECRETARY Major General Peel, having had under his consideration the existing Regulations respecting issues of Fuel and Light to the Army, has decided, with the concurrence of His Royal Highness the General Commanding in Chief, and with the sanction of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, that the following revised scales of issue shall be adopted, and that they shall take effect from the 1st September, 1858.

B. HAWES.

1. Soldiers' Rooms.

The quantity of Fuel and Light to be issued to the Troops is to be hereafter calculated according to the total actual strength of each Corps, after deducting detachments, recruiting parties and men in district prisons, but including casualties, such as men sick in hospital, confined in barrack cells, absent with or without leave, or detached on escort duty, or on any temporary command, provided such absence shall not exceed fourteen days.

It must, however, be clearly understood that no Non-commissioned Officer or Man receiving a separate allowance of fuel and light is to be included in the above computation of numbers or rooms.

The one-third allowance for the additional meal is to be calculated upon this revised number of men.

2. Extra Issues of Fuel in Severe Weather.

A discretionary power is hereby given to General Officers and to Officers Commanding Garrisons, Battalions or Regiments when there is no General or other superior Officer at the station, to authorize the temporary issue of Fuel (by one week's allowance at a time) on the Winter instead of the Summer scale, during any period in the last fortnight of October or in the first fortnight of May, if the weather should be then so unusually severe as to render it necessary for the health of the Troops that the Winter Allowance should be granted.

If the Summer Allowance for the week has been already drawn, the difference between the two allowances for the remaining days of the week (reckoning from the day on which the additional Fuel is required to the next usual issuing day) is to be drawn by a Supplementary Return.

3. Extra Fuel for Guard Rooms.

The Officers named in the foregoing paragraph are also, with reference to the General Order of 15th October, 1851 (H. G.—141), hereby granted a discretionary power of authorizing an increased issue of Fuel to Guards during very severe weather in the winter months, and also an issue during wet weather in the summer months, not exceeding in either case the 40 lb. a day specified in that Order.

The arrangements in this and the preceding paragraph will obviate the necessity of an application to the War Office through the Quartermaster-General for a special authority in each case.

5. Serjeants' Messes.

The following allowances of Fuel and Light are hereby authorized for Serjeants' Messes; viz.:—

One room's allowance for six or fewer dining members.

Two rooms' allowance for any number above six and not exceeding twelve.

Three room's allowance for any number exceeding twelve, together with the one-third additional allowance for the Evening Meal in each case; provided always, that the Serjeants have the accommodation of a kitchen as well as of a mess-room.

5. Married Soldiers' Quarters.

The issues of Fuel and Light to be made to the separate quarters that have, at some Stations, been permanently appropriated for married Non-commissioned

Digitized by Google

Officers and Men, have been already determined by Circular, No. 216, of the 19th February, 1858 (56—Gen. No.—92), but it has been decided, that the allowances of Fuel and Light authorized by that Circular shall also be made to any married Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier who shall happen to be temporarily accommodated with a room in Barracks; provided that the number of married men to whom these allowances are made does not exceed the proportion laid down by the Circular, No. 234, of the 19th March, 1858 (9656—1); and provided also, that no Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier is placed upon the lodging list in consequence of such occupation. It will, therefore, be necessary for the Barrack Master, in all cases of claims for lodging-money for Staff Serjeants of the 1st or 2nd Class, or for other Non-commissioned Officers and Men, to certify that they were not placed upon the Lodging List in consequence of any other Non-commissioned Officers or Men occupying a greater amount of accommodation than they are entitled to by the Regulations.

6. Pay Serjeants.

Half a room's allowance of Fuel and Light is sanctioned for the Pay Serjeant of each Troop or Company who may happen to be accommodated with a room in Barracks, provided the Lodging List is not affected by such occupation.

7. Wood.

The allowance of wood for lighting fires is hereby increased from three to six pounds per fire per week.

8. Officers' Messes.

Allowances of coals, wood and candles to Officers' Messes are to be made according to the annexed scale.

A pecuniary allowance in lieu of Fuel and Light is never to be granted to Regimental Messes in Barracks when those articles can be issued in kind, nor are candles to be issued if the Mess Establishment is lighted with gas.

9. Candles.

Tallow candles are to be discontinued for issue to Officers and Officers' Messes and their Offices, and the best composition candles are to be issued in their stead.

This alteration, however, is not to come into operation at any Station until the present stock of mould candles in store at the Station is expended.

10. Commuted Allowance to Officers living out of Barracks.

As a consequence of the addition sanctioned above in the allowance of wood, and of the substitution of composition for tallow candles, the commuted allowance in lieu of Fuel and Light to married Officers living out of Barracks with permission, and also to Officers entitled to issues, but living in Government buildings outside the Barracks, is hereby increased from 2*s.* 6*d.* per week per room to 6*d.* per day per room; but no augmentation is to be made to the rates of combined allowance in lieu, as well of Lodgings as of Fuel and Light, fixed by the Circular of the 1st September, 1856 (167 L—258), or by any other Order or Regulation, nor to the existing commuted rates for Offices or Storerooms.

11. Commuted Allowance in lieu of Coals, Candles, Straw and Brooms in Hut Barracks.

The additional third hitherto allowed over and above the commuted rates of allowance to Troops in Hut Barracks is to be discontinued, and the Field Batteries of the Royal Artillery and the Military Train, being mounted Corps, are, as regards these allowances, to be treated as Cavalry. It must, however, be clearly understood that no claim is to be preferred for the commuted Fuel and Light Allowance in respect of any Non-commissioned Officer or Man who may be living out of Hut Barracks with the permission of his Commanding Officer.

12. All the increased allowances granted by this Circular are to be looked upon as maximum quantities, and are not to be granted when it may be found that a smaller issue will suffice for the health and comfort of the Troops.

CIRCULAR, No. 300.

FOREIGN STATIONS.

War Office, 9th August, 1858.

CONSIDERABLE inconvenience having arisen from the existing practice of deducting from the extra pay of Engineer Officers abroad the amount of stoppage to which they are liable when accommodated in public quarters, the Secretary of State for War has decided that the stoppage shall in future be paid by Engineer Officers into the Treasury Chest through the Barrack Master at the Station.

In the cases of Engineer Officers serving in the Australian Colonies who are permitted to receive extra lodging money, the sum to be issued under that head should be the difference between the rate authorized and the regulated stoppage.

General No. 105.

CIRCULAR, No. 303.

War Office, 18th August, 1858.

THE attention of Commanding Royal Engineers is called to the practice of ordering extras upon works in progress.

Whether a work is being executed under a contract or not, the Commanding Royal Engineer is bound by the approved plan, specification and estimate, and is not to depart from or add to them without absolute necessity.

As, however, material improvements may suggest themselves to an Officer in the execution of a work, by which its cost may be diminished by the substitution of cheaper material or workmanship, or by the reduction of the dimensions of certain parts, and as, on the other hand, an evident increase of strength, convenience or efficiency may be at times attained for a comparatively moderate increase of expense, it is not wished to discourage Officers from proposing such alterations when they consider it desirable to do so, and even adopting the alterations on their own responsibility when they do not involve an alteration of design or an increase of expense, or when the cost of the alteration is compensated by a corresponding reduction in some other part of the same work. They must not take any steps involving an actual addition to the cost of the work without due authority, and as a rule such authority should be obtained, by a reference to the Inspector General of Fortifications, before the alterations are actually effected.

In urgent cases, however, the Commanding Royal Engineer may adopt alterations of the character referred to on his own responsibility, but in such cases he is immediately to report having done so, and request a covering authority.

It must be understood in carrying on works by contract for a lump sum, that the amount voted by Parliament for a particular service is not to be considered as an authority to the executive Officer to expend that amount, such vote being merely a vote of credit given by Parliament to the Secretary of State for War; and even in works performed on a schedule of prices, or by day work, the 10 per cent. allowed for contingencies should generally be saved, for it is only from the balances produced by the excess of estimates over the actual cost of execution that it is possible to provide funds for the numerous unforeseen services which arise in the course of the year.

By direction of the Secretary of State the extent to which the Accountant General will hereafter pass claims on account of a contract will not exceed the amount of the accepted tender unless authority for further expenditure is given by the Secretary of State as above provided.

By Order.
H. C. OWEN,
Deputy Inspector General of Fortifications.

Horse Guards, S.W., 10th July, 1858.

A QUESTION having arisen as to whether the Bands of Rifled Muskets, Pattern "1853," should be browned in the same manner and at the same time as the Barrels, it becomes necessary to explain that the colour given to the Bands at first is by "Blueing," and is of a more durable nature than "Browning," and that in order to re-blue them they require merely to be heated in a little charcoal dust, or held over a coke fire. This method is preferable to browning, and it is such a simple and inexpensive operation that whenever the Armourer Serjeant is paid for browning a Barrel, the service should include the blueing of the Bands, without any extra charge, the present allowance (1*s.*) being considered sufficient to cover both services.

General No. 109, A.—40. | Military Train, 4.

Horse Guards, S.W., 13th July, 1858.

THE General Commanding in Chief desires that the following may be substituted for paragraph 6 of the "Regulations for the Guidance of Officers commanding Detachments of the Military Train," issued from the Adjutant General's Department on the 17th June, 1857, viz.:—

"6. The men of the Military Train are to have nothing to do with loading and unloading the waggons, and the whole of the labour required is to be furnished by the Troops. Commanding Officers will therefore, on the arrival of the Train, immediately detail fatigue parties for the purpose. Barrack Masters will also make immediate arrangements for carrying out the duty as far as their Department is concerned.

"It must, however, be clearly understood that the method of packing, as well as the size and weight of the articles to be carried on each waggon, &c. &c., should be decided by the Officer or Non-commissioned Officer commanding the Detachment of the Train, and the work performed under his superintendence.

"Care should also be taken that the Train is not unnecessarily detained, and any complaint on this point is to be made at once in writing to the Assistant Quarter-master General, who will refer the question to the proper Department."

The above alteration is to be made in manuscript in the filed copy of the Regulations alluded to.

CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM,

General No. 110, A.—41. Books and Returns, 31.

Horse Guards, S.W., 24th July, 1858.

His Royal Highness the General Commanding in Chief desires Officers commanding Regiments and Depôts to render, with the least possible delay, a Return of the number of men flogged in the Corps under their command during the year 1857, specifying the date, the Station, the offence, the sentence and the number of lashes inflicted in each case.

It is presumed that the Depôts of Corps serving abroad can furnish the required information respecting their Service Companies.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 711.

Horse Guards, S.W., 19th July, 1858.

The remissness of Commanding Officers in not causing Officers recommended for promotion, by purchase or otherwise, to be examined and reported upon in due time has produced much inconvenience to the Service, and unavoidable injury to the interests of individuals by retarding their promotion.

The General Commanding in Chief desires that the examination of Officers, whether first for promotion in succession or by purchase, may take place as soon as they are fit, and that the Reports of the Board of Examiners be sent to the Military Secretary without reference to expected vacancies.

The Board of Examiners should, when practicable, be composed of Officers not belonging to the same Corps as the Candidate, and the examination conducted by written questions, which, with the replies, are to accompany their Report.

Circumstances of Service may occur in which it would be difficult, if not impossible, to assemble a Board for Examination; in such cases a certificate, duly vouched by the Commanding Officer, to the effect that the Officer is qualified for the advanced step in rank, will be accepted; but under no circumstances is the General Commanding in Chief to be left in ignorance of the qualifications of Officers first for promotion.

The strictest attention to this Order is enjoined, for the observance of which Commanding Officers will be held responsible.

By Order of His Royal Highness,
The General Commanding in Chief.

G. A. WETHERALL,
Adjutant General.

CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM.

Horse Guards, S.W., 19th July, 1858.

The following regulations in regard to the examination of Officers, preparatory to promotion in the Army, are to be substituted for those promulgated by the Circular Memorandum of the 14th May, 1850, and that of the 4th July, 1851.

The qualifications required of Candidates for Commissions will be made known to their friends, and the time and place of examination will be stated in each case, so that the same may take place before any Commission is granted.

Before Officers are recommended for promotion to the rank of Lieutenant, the Commanding Officer is to have them examined by a Board of Officers, consisting of himself, another Field Officer (if there should be one present with the regiment), and the Senior Captain, and, if there should be no second Field Officer present with the regiment, then the two Senior Captains present.

This Board is to report to the Military Secretary, for the information of the Commander in Chief, that the Officers about to be recommended for promotion to the rank of Lieutenant, have been instructed on the following points, viz.:—

1. They must have a perfect acquaintance with the Standing Orders of the Regiments in which they are serving.
2. They must have a thorough knowledge and must give an account of the duties they have to perform as Regimental Orderly Officers, as Officers commanding Guards, or as Subaltern Officers of Guards under Officers of superior rank.
3. They must be able to put a Company through the Manual and Platoon Exercise, and be capable of exercising both a Squad and a Company in the Drill and Evolutions as prescribed in the first two parts of the Regulations for the Field Exercise of the Infantry.
4. They must know exactly the place of all the Company Officers in every situation of the Battalion, whether in Line, Open, Close, Quarter or Half Distance Column, and whether Right or Left in Front.
5. They must be acquainted with the General Regulations and Orders of the Army and with the Mutiny Act and Articles of War.
6. They must be acquainted with the Queen's Regulations and Warrants in regard to the supply of necessaries to the Troops, with the price of each article, and the regulations applicable to the same.
7. They must know the weight of the knapsack, the weight of the soldier's firelock, with and without the bayonet, of his pouch, with and without ammunition, the quantity of ammunition it is calculated to carry, and the weight of his accoutrements.
8. In addition to such portions of the above as may apply to the Cavalry Service, the Cornets must be required to be well acquainted with their Stable and Barrack duties, to have completed their course of instruction in the Riding School, and to be able to exercise a Troop both on foot and mounted.

Lieutenants who may have entered the Service subsequently to July, 1849, and all who may hereafter enter the Army, will, in addition to the above, before they are recommended for promotion to the rank of Captain be required to have—

9. A knowledge of Geography, so as to be able to state the general divisions of the world, the name of the capital of each nation in Europe, and the principal rivers, sea-ports and military posts in Great Britain, Ireland and Her Majesty's dominions in every part of the world.
10. They must be perfectly acquainted with the forms and proceedings of Courts Martial.
11. They must have studied some of the standard works on Courts Martial.
12. They must understand perfectly the Evolutions of a Battalion of Infantry or Regiment of Cavalry, as laid down in the regulations for those services respectively.
13. They must be acquainted with the Light Infantry Drill.
14. They must perfectly understand the interior economy of a Troop or Company, the regulations for the messing and subsistence of the Soldiers, and the established system of keeping their accounts.
15. They must be acquainted with the Royal Warrants which regulate the Pay, Provisioning, Pensions, Rewards, Periods of Service, Clothing and Equipment of the Soldier.
16. They must be acquainted with the General Regulations and Orders of the Army; more particularly with those for the government and management of the Troops embarked in transport and convict ships.
17. And it must be ascertained that they are competent to take charge of a Company or Detachment in every position in which it may be placed.

The examination of Officers for the rank of Captain, as far as relates to matters of regimental economy, detail or discipline, is to be made by Boards of Officers to be appointed by the Commanding Officer at the Station, consisting, when possible, of three senior Officers not belonging to the same corps as the candidate for examination, and a report thereon is to be forwarded to the Military Secretary.

By Order of His Royal Highness,
The General Commanding in Chief.

Adjutant General.

In order more effectually to assist the Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital in determining the pensions of Soldiers discharged as invalids, a copy of the charge, finding and sentence of each Court Martial by which an individual may have been tried is to be inserted on the first page of the proceedings of the Regimental Board, which can be prolonged, if necessary, by attaching thereto additional paper. In cases where injuries have occurred from accident, either on or off duty, a copy of the finding of the court of inquiry held to investigate the case is invariably to accompany the discharge documents, and Medical Officers are to be careful in all cases to describe, not only the disability itself, on account of which the man is recommended for discharge, but the cause and origin thereof, and whether attributable to military duty, climate, constitutional predisposition or accident, together with the circumstances under which it occurred, whether on or off duty. If the cause is unknown or cannot be traced, it should be so stated.

22. When a Soldier at home is recommended to be discharged with ignominy, the pleasure of the Commander-in-Chief is to be ascertained before the offender is sent to prison. The application is to be accompanied by a copy of the charge, finding and sentence, descriptive return, statement of services, extract from regimental defaulters' and court martial book, and a certificate from the Surgeon that the prisoner cannot, for the reason assigned, gain re-admission into the service. If the recommendation be approved, the form prescribed in par. 23 is to be gone through before he is permitted to leave his Regiment; and in all cases where a Soldier is to be discharged at the termination of his imprisonment, the discharge documents are to be completed, and the parchment certificate is to be transmitted by the Commanding Officer to the governor of the prison in time to be given to the prisoner on his release.

and record the cause of the loss. If the Board be of opinion that the man has designedly made away with or pawned his medal he is to be tried by Court Martial; and, if convicted, put under stoppages, and the amount is to be credited to the public. After five years' absence from the regimental defaulters' book the offender may be recommended to the Commander-in-Chief for a new medal on again paying the value thereof.

37. If the loss be proved to have occurred from carelessness or neglect, the loser may be recommended to the Commander-in-Chief for a new medal at his own expense after two years absence from the Regimental Defaulters' Book.

38. If the loss be accidental the loser may be recommended at once for a new medal, either at his own expense or that of the public, according to the circumstances of the case; it being understood that, in order to justify the replacement of a medal at the public expense, the loss must be proved to have occurred on duty by some accident entirely beyond the control of the loser; in all other cases, such as the loss of a medal cut from a tunic or stolen from a Soldier's person, the loser must pay for it himself.

39. The Board is invariably to call for evidence as to the character of Soldiers who lose their medals, and when no testimony regarding the loss is produced beyond the loser's own assertion, the Board, except under very special circumstances, which it will record in its finding, is to deal with the case as if it were proved that the loss occurred from neglect.

40. When the Board does not recommend a medal to be replaced at once, the proceedings are not to be forwarded to Head Quarters until the prescribed time has elapsed, according to the regulations above given for making the application.

16. All Official Orders and Memoranda having reference to the proceedings of Military Tribunals are to be laid before Courts Martial when sitting. The minutes of the proceedings of all Courts Martial are to be fairly and accurately recorded, in a clear and legible hand, without erasures or interlineations; the pages are to be numbered, and the sheets (when more than one) are to be stitched together. A certificate, in the handwriting of the Medical Officer, according to a prescribed form, showing the state of health of the prisoner, and whether he has or has not been marked D, is invariably to be attached to the proceedings. When the Court abstains from sentencing a Deserter to be marked D, a separate letter, stating the reasons, and signed by the President, is also to be appended. The same course is to be followed when a Court abstains from sentencing a Soldier to forfeiture, under the 28th clause of the Mutiny Act, of pay or pension, medals, annuity or gratuity; and whenever a Court Martial is re-assembled for the purpose of revising its proceedings, the letter, order or memorandum (or a copy thereof) containing the instructions to the Court, and the reasons for requiring the revision, is to be attached to and form part of the proceedings; and care is to be taken that sufficient space is left immediately below the signature of the President for the signature and remarks of the confirming authority.

THE VICTORIA CROSS.

THE following Officers and Men have been awarded the above Decoration in addition to those whose Names were published in "The Monthly Army Lists" for March, June, July, October and December, 1857, and January, February, May and July, 1858.

War Office, 23*rd August*, 1858.

THE QUEEN has been graciously pleased to signify her intention to confer the Decoration of "The Victoria Cross" on the under-mentioned Officer and Non-commissioned Officers who have been recommended to her Majesty for that Decoration on account of acts of bravery performed by them in India, as recorded against their several names, viz.:—

66th (Ghoorkha) Beng. Nat. Inf.—Lieutenant JOHN ADAM TYTLER.—Date of act of bravery, 10 February, 1858.

On the attacking parties approaching the enemy's position under a heavy fire of round shot, grape and musketry, on the occasion of the action at Choorpoorah, on the 10th of February last, Lieutenant Tytler dashed on horseback ahead of all, and alone, up to the enemy's guns, where he remained engaged hand to hand, until they were carried by us; and where he was shot through the left arm, had a spear wound in his chest, and a ball through the right sleeve of his coat. (Letter from Captain C. C. G. Ross, commanding 66th (Ghoorkha) Regiment, to Captain Brownlow, Major of Brigade, Kemaon Field Force.)

37th Beng. Nat. Inf.—Serjeant-Major M. ROSAMOND.—Date of act of bravery, 4 June, 1857.

This non-commissioned officer volunteered to accompany Lieutenant Colonel Spottiswoode, commanding the 37th Regiment of Bengal Native Infantry, to the right of the lines, in order to set them on fire, with the view of driving out the Sepoys, on the occasion of the outbreak at Benares on the evening of the 4th of June, 1857; and also volunteered, with Serjeant Major Gill, of the Loodiana Regiment, to bring off Captain Brown, Pension Paymaster, his wife and infant, and also some others, from a detached bungalow into the barracks. His conduct was highly meritorious, and he has been since promoted.

Loodiana Reg.—Serjeant-Major PETER GILL.—Date of act of bravery, 4 June, 1857.

This non-commissioned officer also conducted himself with gallantry at Benares on the night of the 4th of June, 1857. He volunteered with Serjeant-Major Rosamond, of the 37th Regiment of Bengal Native Infantry, to bring in Captain Brown, Pension Paymaster, and his family from a detached bungalow to the barracks, as above recorded, and saved the life of the Quartermaster-Serjeant of the 25th Regiment of Bengal Native Infantry in the early part of the evening, by cutting off the head of the Sepoy who had just bayonetted him. Serjeant-Major Gill states, that on the same night he faced a guard of twenty-seven men, with only a sergeant's sword; and it is also represented that he twice saved the life of Major Barrett, 27th Regiment of Bengal Native Infantry, when attacked by Sepoys of his own regiment.

42nd Regiment.—Colour-Serjeant WILLIAM GARDNER.—Date of act of bravery, 5 May, 1858.

For his conspicuous and gallant conduct on the morning of the 5th of May last, in having saved the life of Lieutenant-Colonel Cameron, his commanding officer, who during the action at Bareilly on that day had been knocked from his horse, when three Fanatics rushed upon him. Colour-Serjeant Gardner ran out, and in a moment bayonetted two of them, and was in the act of attacking the third when he was shot down by another soldier of the regiment. MEMORANDUM.

ARTIFICIAL ARMS AND LEGS.

THE Lords and others Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital having at the suggestion and recommendation of the Secretary of State for War, made Arrangements for the supply of Artificial Arms (constructed upon an improved principle) and of Artificial Legs (in imitation of the natural leg, both as to form and motion) to those Commissioned Officers who have been wounded in the Service, whose means may not enable them to provide themselves with more expensive contrivances,—it is hereby notified, that such Officers who may be desirous of availing themselves of this benefit, and whose cases may come within the above regulation, should address their applications upon the subject to the Secretary of Chelsea Hospital. It is, however, to be clearly understood, that, as this is intended to be a boon to Officers of the above description, no pecuniary allowance in lieu can be granted to Officers who may prefer providing themselves with other substitutes for limbs.

The Queen has been pleased to direct that the following Regulations respecting Foreign Orders and Medals shall be substituted for those now in force:

Regulations respecting Foreign Orders.

1. No Subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Such permission shall not be granted to any Subject of Her Majesty, unless the Foreign Order shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service before the Enemy, either at Sea or in the Field; or unless he shall have been actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's dominions, in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign by whom the Order is conferred.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British Subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the Notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the Ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.

If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the Notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such Notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Services before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, previously to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.

A similar reference shall also be made to the Commander-in-Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty, if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order, and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a Notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission, may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's licence and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realms.

9. When a British Subject has received the Royal permission to accept a Foreign Order, he will at any future time be allowed to accept the Decoration of a higher Class of the same Order, to which he may have become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign Service, or in the Service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British Subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV. and King William IV., on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and of Hanover were united.

Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British Subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

Regulations respecting Foreign Medals.

Application for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a Foreign Sovereign on British subjects in the Army or in the Navy for military or for naval services, should be addressed, as the case may be, to the Commander-in-Chief, the Master-General of the Ordnance, or the Lords of the Admiralty, who, if they see fit, may submit the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for Her Majesty's sanction; upon obtaining which, they may grant such permission without any other formality.

2. Permission to wear a Foreign Medal cannot be granted to a British Subject, unless such Medal is bestowed for military or naval services performed by the command or with the sanction of Her Majesty. But no permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such Medal is not to be worn.

(Signed) CLARENDON.

Foreign Office, May 10, 1855.
